Dedication

In appreciation of her long service in the field of education, the 1966 Clan is respectfully dedicated to Miss Arabella Odell, who retires August 31.

A graduate of Cleburne High School, she received her BA and MA degrees from the University of Texas. Beginning her teaching career at North Side High, Miss Odell soon moved to Jennings Avenue School and then to Central High, which is now Tech.

Several years later Miss Odell joined the faculty at Handley High, where she taught English until Eastern Hills opened in 1959. She taught English that first year and was senior counselor. She moved up to her present position of dean of girls the next year.

Of her teaching Miss Odell said, "I taught boys and girls, not English."

Mr. Luther Scarborough, Handley principal, congratulates Miss Odell for her devoted service to education.

Miss Winnie Bedell, Mr. Lloyd Parker, and Mrs. Lois Gunn, all former co-workers with Miss Odell at Handley, greet her at the reception held in her honor. The faculty at EHHS and P-TA presented her a watch and television set.

Howdy Queen nominees were Jeanne O'Neill, Linda Burt, Laurie Parish, and Kathy Small. Howdy King Nominees were Larry Carlton, Pete Jensen, David Smith, and Jerry Miller.

Candidates were nominated by Y-Teen officers and were voted upon by students at the dance.

Howdy Week Welcomes Students

Eastern Hills students participate in the Howdy Dance at the end of the opening week of school. Designed to help sophomores become acquainted with upperclassmen, Howdy Week is Sponsored by Y-Teens.

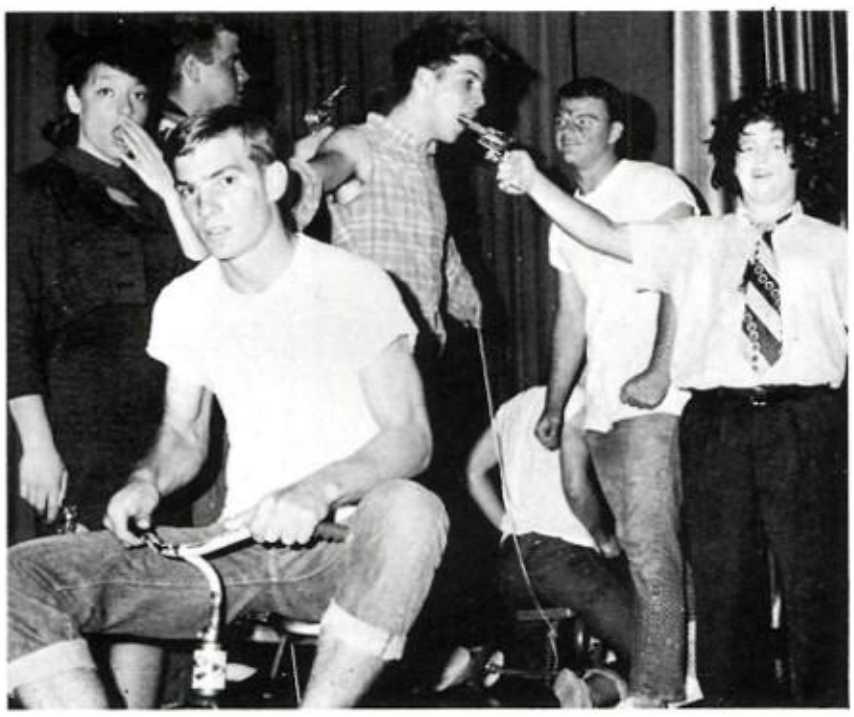
Mr. Johnson crowns Jane Klabzuba Howdy Queen at the dance.

Dean DuVall and Jane Klabzuba embrace after being crowned Howdy King and Queen.

James Bum Saves Subscription Plan

Tartan and Clan staff members rehearse for the assembly to kick off the subscription drive.

In a spoof on the James Bond series, Randy Cole plays the role of the hero, James Bum.



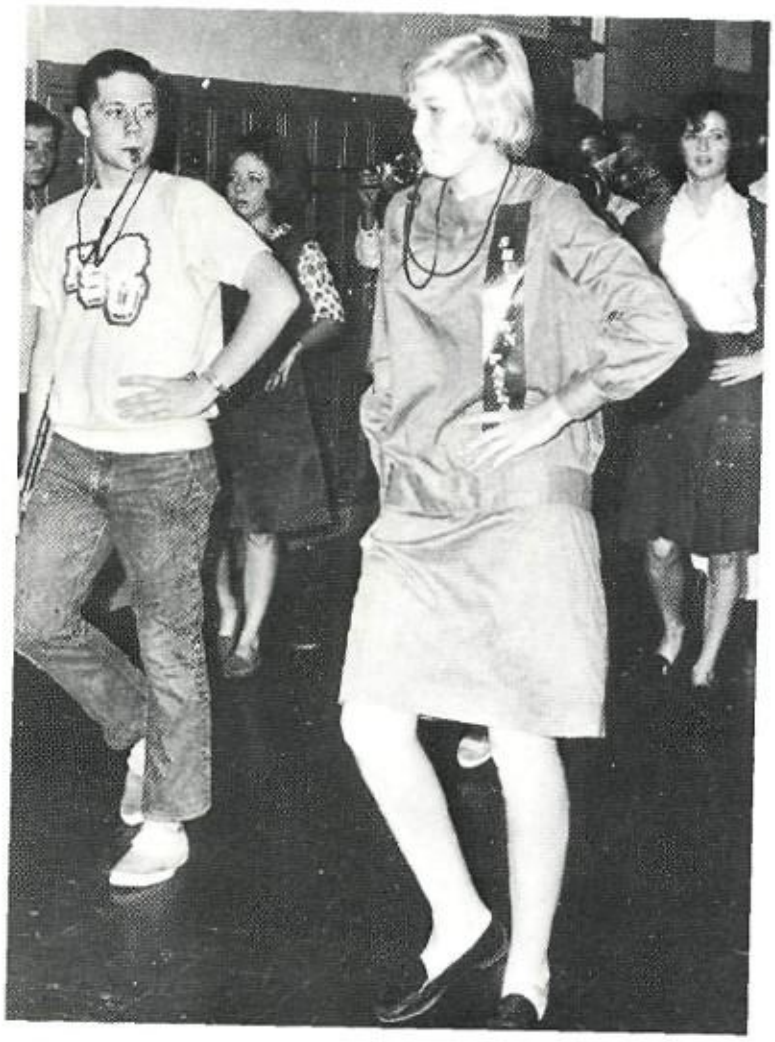
Byran Spain, as Silver Thumb, tortures James Bum to the horror of Kitty, played by Barbara George.

Because of his role as Superman, Ken Roselle gained a new moniker, Super Ken. He helped James Bum rescue the package plan from Silver Thumb.

Homecoming Events

Dean DuVall congratulates Sandra Randall after she was announced as homecoming queen. She was voted queen by the football team.

Sandra Randall, homecoming queen, and Carolyn Miller, coming-home queen, are escorted off the field after being crowned at the game against Pascal.



Drum majors Pam MacDowell and Bill Braddy lead the band down the halls before the morning pep rally on the day of the homecoming game.

Mr. Vaughan, Lewis Miller, newly elected president of the ex-students association, and Coach Mitcham join hands in the traditional pep rally pledge. Despite a great team effort, the Highlanders lost to Pascal.

Add to Spirit

Mrs. Carolyn Miller, coming-home queen, and football queen nominees, Cindy Schultz, Donna Davis, Danna Dodson, Candi Cantrell, and escorts stand before queen Sandra Randall at the homecoming game.

Lagasse Stars in Fall Drama

Rodney Lagasse, playing the role of Jim Stark, a new boy in school, had the lead in the fall play, "Rebel Without a Cause." Barbara George, girl friend of a "wheel" in school, Buzz Gunderson, who was portrayed by Joe Walton, starred as the feminine lead.

At left, gang members Johnnie Burdine, Phil Tatum, Janice Minshew, Dolores Taylor, and Jim Carpenter stare at the shattered remains of Buzz' car after he plunged off the cliff.

Joe Walton and Rodney Lagasse engage in a knife fight, which supposedly took place in the planetarium.

Members of the audience enthusiastically greet cast members Joe Walton, Rodney Lagasse, Jack Graham, and Randy Cole.

Exhausted Highlander cheerleaders, Donna Davis and Kathy Webb return home via bus after the Waco game. Yells and excitement turned into sheer fatigue after the game.

Pep Rallies Promote Enthusiasm

Highlander pep rallies never failed to boost morale and excitement, even though many students attend them only to get out of classes.

Football boys let off nervous steam before the game.

Coach Mitcham introduces Sandy Liddle, who will give the pledge for the faculty and student body. This has become a tradition since the opening of Eastern Hills.

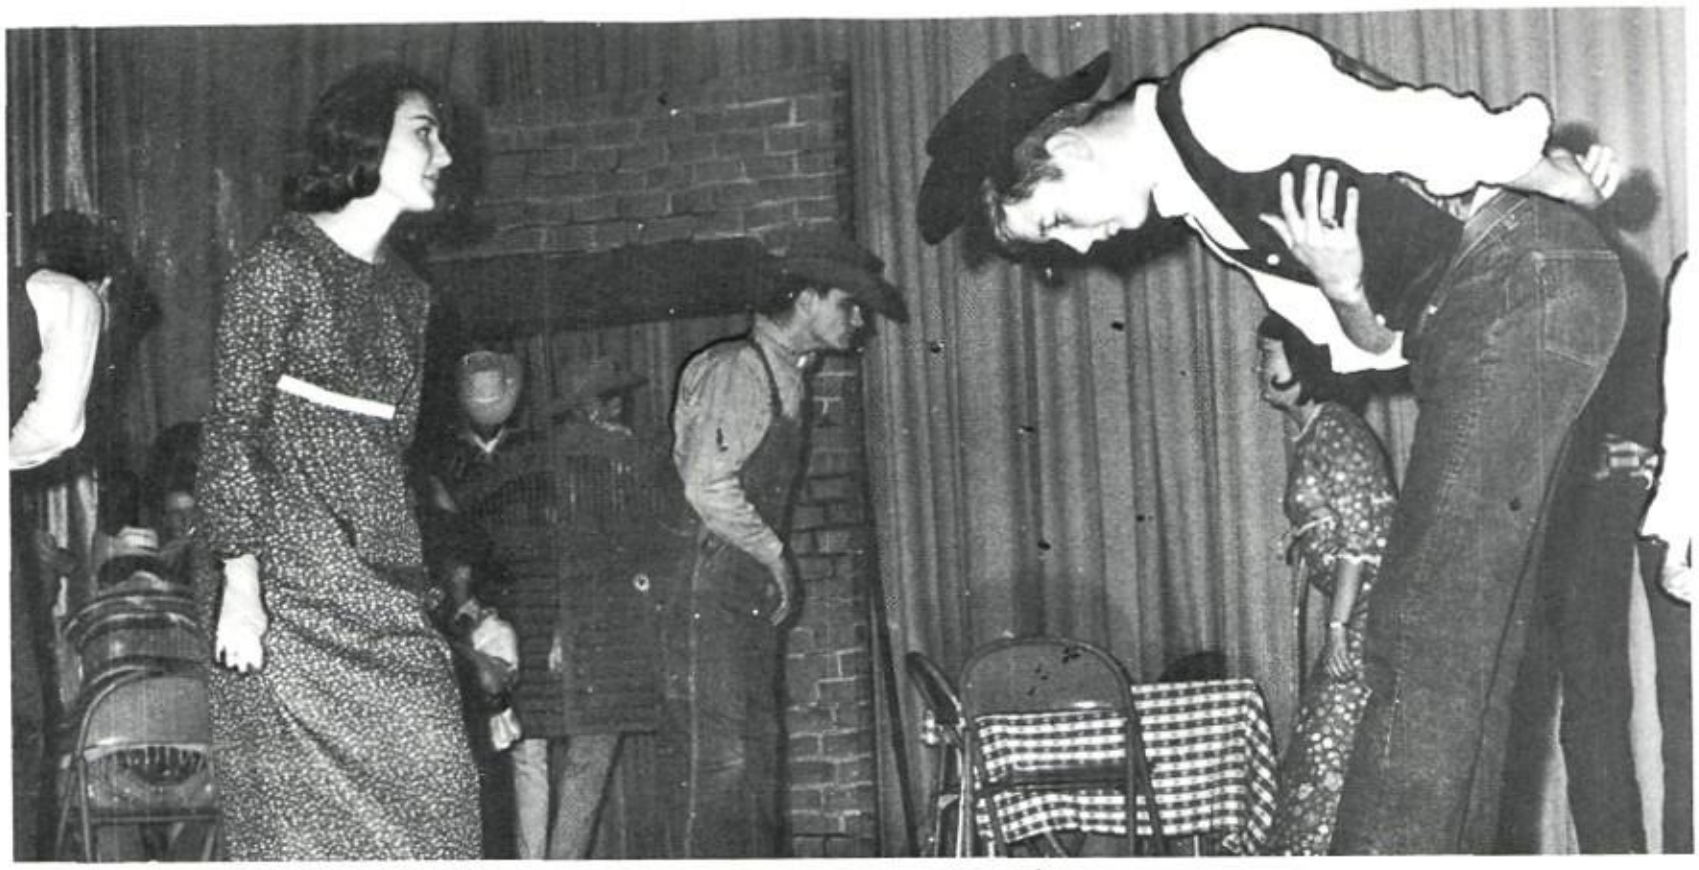
Santa Claus (Jim Kelley) receives many letters from Highlanders for various types of dolls. Elves (Linda Hooglind and Kathy Small) help deliver the dolls.

Bryan Spain came as a baseball to be given to some sports enthusiast.

Santa Delivers Unusual Dolls

Sabra Hester received Bullwinkle (Rusty Wright).

Inspired by the song, a Bird of Paradise doll (Bill Hilliard) arrived at EHHS. The doll show is sponsored annually by Y-Teens. Price of admission is 25¢ or a can of food, all of which is given to needy families.



Joy Neel and Don Means square dance at the Western Day program. Other dancers are Donna Davis, Lynn Haley, Larry Carlton, Rusty Wright, Dianne Jordan, and Gordan Ball.

Ray Brown and "Pop," Robert Stewart, sing "It's crying time again; you're gonna leave me."

Frontier Life Comes to EH

Brian Spain and Sandy Liddle enjoy participating in the Western Day program.

For her talent presentation, Karen Cox played piano selections which tied in with her drawings of an elephant, a pink panther, a lazy river, an alley cat, and a bumblebee in flight.

From a field of 72 contestants, five finalists were chosen in Friday night's competition. Winners were Jeanne O'Neill, Cheryl Monroe, Karen Cox, Miss Big E, Karlin Johnson, and Ann Dominy.

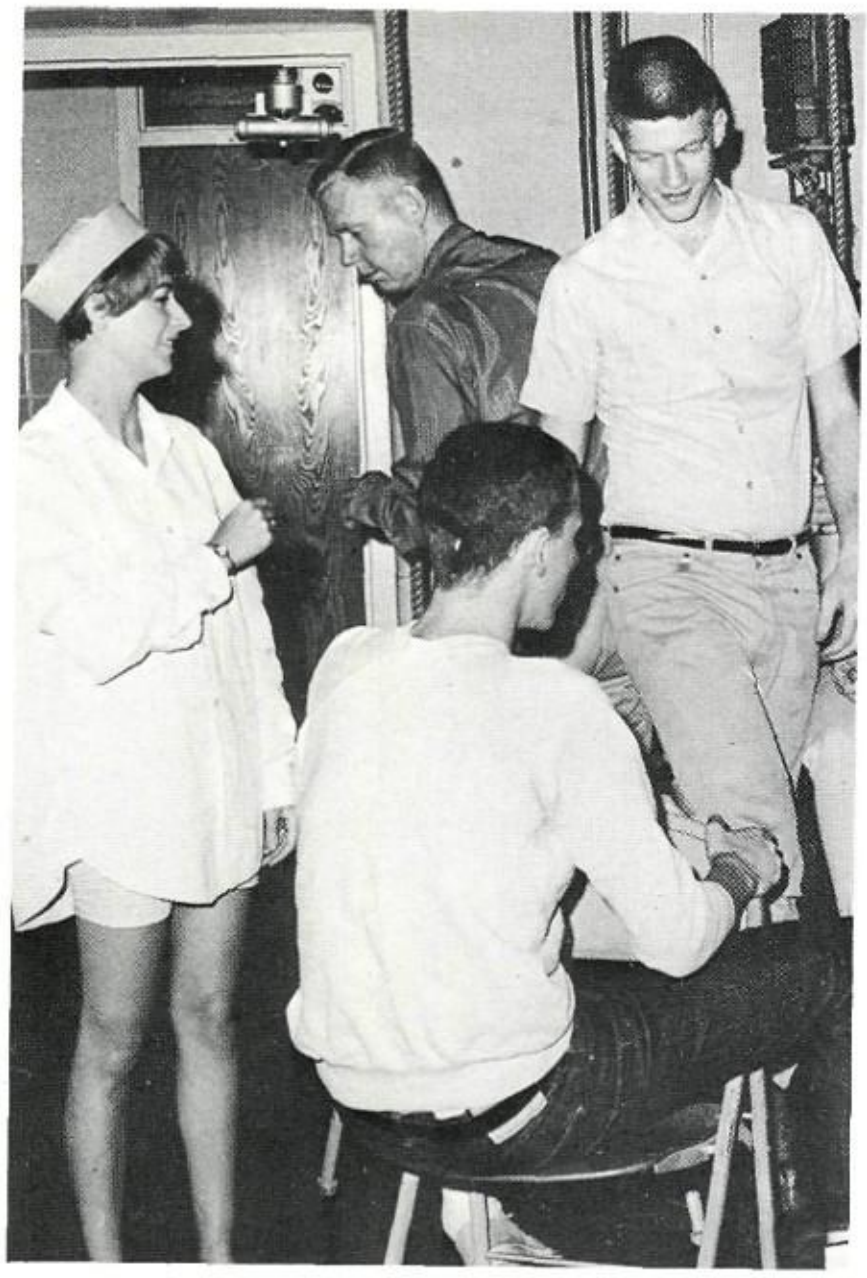
Judy Hill, a 1963 graduate of EHHS and former Maid of Cotton, primps before making her appearance at the Big E.

Don Means, master of ceremonies, congratulates Jeanne O'Neill, who was chosen by other contestants as Miss Congeniality.

Karen Cox Wins Big E Title

Youthful admirers clamor around Karen Cox after she was announced as winner of the Big E. One of her classmates, Bonnie Pemberton, won the title last year. Judges for the pageant were Joy Garrett, former Miss Fort Worth; Mason Johnson, TWC professor; and Margaret McDonald, TV performer.

Variety Show Replaces Play



Carol Davis, Wayne Nash, and Ralph Hill helped backstage with the variety show.

At the student performance Julia Wofford, Carol Parker, and Becky Smith sang a trio.

A skit called "Seeing Double," in which two people played each role, was presented at the student performance of the Highlander Revue, which took the place of a spring play this year.

Below: Seniors and their dates enjoyed horseback riding, playing softball and volleyball, and eating at the annual picnic.

Senior Program Mocks Schedule

In their annual program seniors went through a "typical" week at Eastern Hills. Highlights included a spoof on the bell system and a typical scene at lunch time. By virtue of lunch passes many seniors eat at McDonald's, but there's always the risk of being "caught" by the vice principal as portrayed here.

Paula Pressley, Bob Buckman, Lacrescia Kilgore, Mike Walker, Ken Roselle, Kim Terry, and Joe Walton and his date prepare to go home after a long and enjoyable evening at the senior banquet.

Bill Stephens, Carol Schmid, Julia Wofford, and Don Stanfield relax in the lobby at Colonial Country Club.

Seniors Attend Banquet at Colonial Country Club

Jan Morris, Julia Wofford, and Hollis Howell entertained guests with "Try To Remember."

Barbara Heffner, Ronnie Salfen, Dale Felmey, and Tim Baldree enjoy the meal of chicken, green beans, wild rice, rolls, and cherry tarts.

David Lown, Susie Vaughan, Sabra Hester, and Johnny Gilmartin wait for the band to get set up to play for the dance.

Clubs

Y-Teens Bake Victory Cake

Margie Tripp pays her Y-Teen dues to secretary, Sandra Randall.

Mrs. Tannahill, sponsor, and Dianne Jordan, program chairman, bake a victory cake for the North Side game. It was presented to the team and coaches before the contest, which was won by the Highlanders 7-0.

"No, I want that one! It's bigger!" exclaims Judy Ware to Donna Lunsford and Joy Neel at the club's progressive dinner held in recognition of World Fellowship Week. Approximately 100 Y-Teens participated in the dinner, the proceeds of which went to the YWCA. Hostesses were Barbara Heffner, appetizers; Candi Cantrell, salads; Jane Klabzuba, main course; and Peggy Hostetter, dessert.

Above: Donna Davis and Kathy Small display trophy won by the Y-Teens for having the best club of the year.

Right: Y-Teen members decorated lockers of athletes and made signs for pep rallies throughout the year.

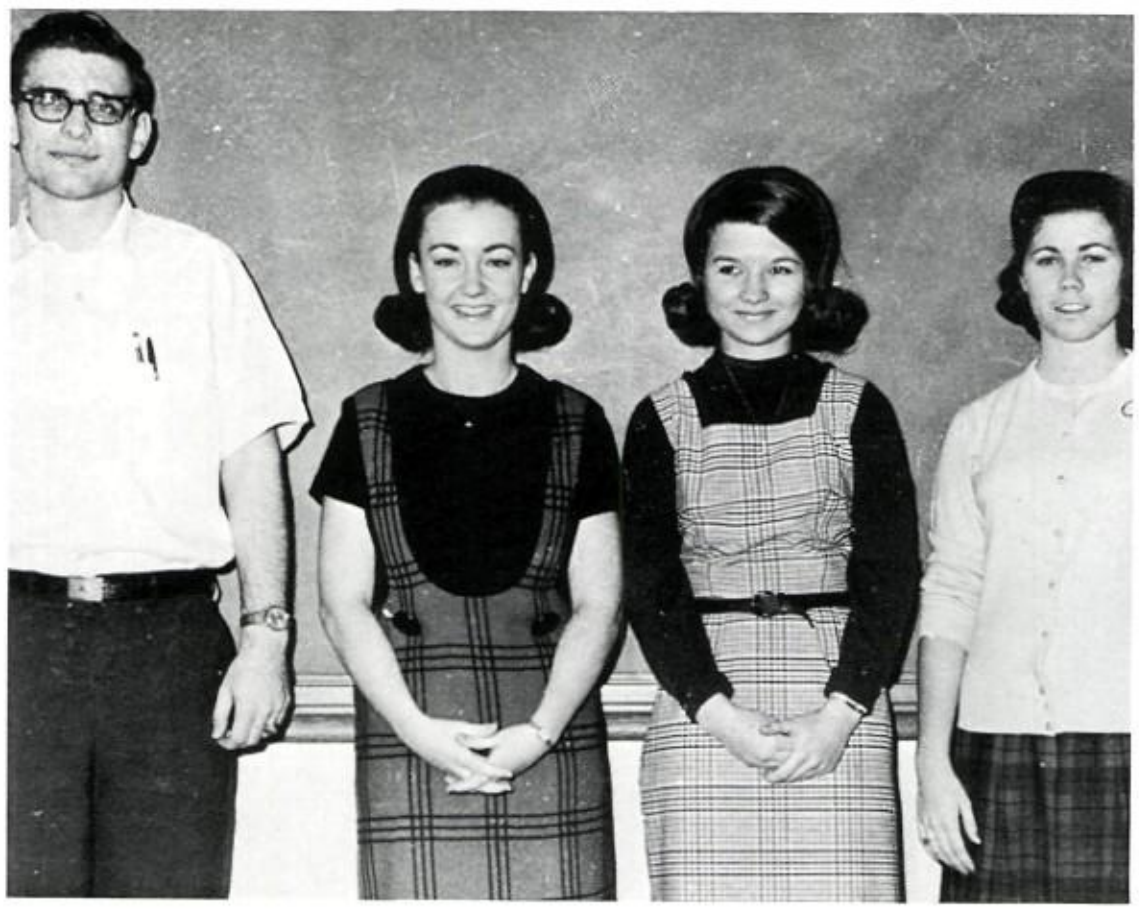
Y-Teens Send Boxes to GIs in Viet Nam

Janet Schober, Beverly Hazlewood, Jeanne O'Neill, and Bonnie Pemberton help pack boxes for GIs in Viet Nam. Mainly because of this project, the club was named Club of the Year.

Officers of Y-Teens are Jane Klabzuba, president; Dianne Jordan, program chairman; Janet Schober, service chairman; Sandra Randall, secretary; Sandy Liddle, sergeant at arms; Peggy Hostetter, song leader; Laurie Parish, sergeant at arms; Joy Neel, Y-Teen representative; Joan Presnall, ICC representative; and Delores Hilcher, chaplain.



Leading the Future Teachers this year were Weldon Neal, parliamentarian; Dianne Jordan, president; Paula Reeves, secretary; and Susie Vaughan, historian. Vice president was Linda Garrett.

FTA Attends State Convention

Fifteen FTA members attended the statewide convention in Austin February 25-27. Club members left at 8 a.m. Friday and returned at 1 a.m. Sunday. Throughout the year various speakers associated in some way with education presented programs for the club. In September several members ushered at the convocation for all school personnel. Among entertainment was a dinner and a picnic.

"M-m-m, that one looks good," says Nina Atherton to Robert Stewart and Susie Vaughan at an FTA meeting before school.

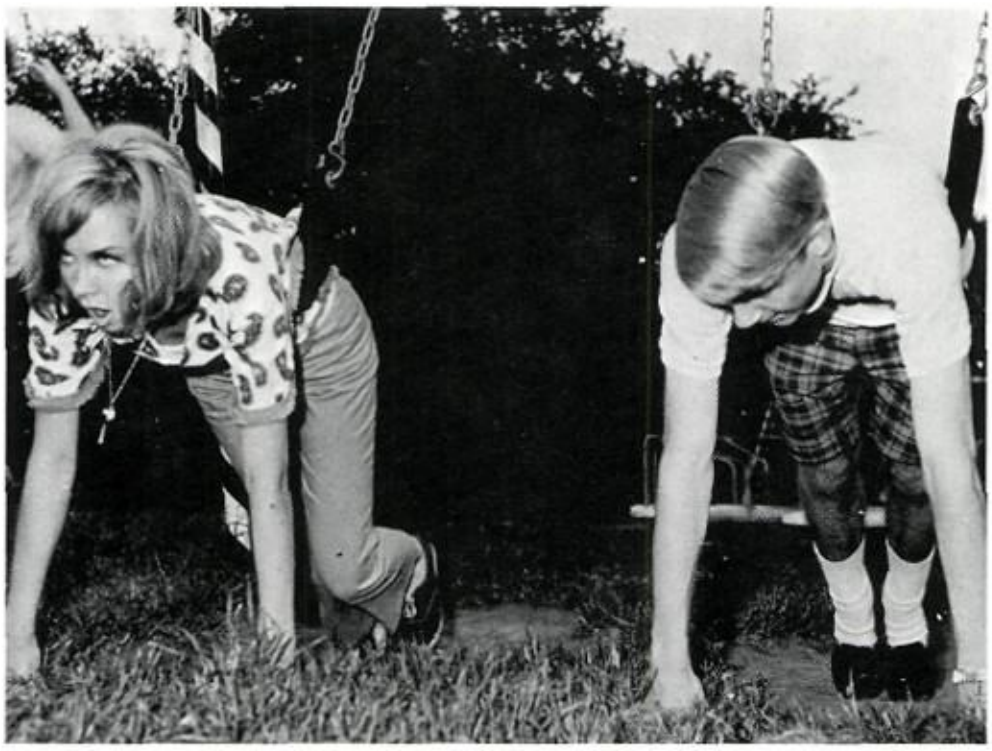
Officers, Joy Neel, vice president; Mary Willess, corresponding secretary; Donna Mills, president; and Janet Bell, recording secretary, make posters for the mentally retarded. The posters are designed to help in teaching through word association and were the main project of the Future Nurses' Club.

FNA Makes Posters for Retarded Children

Future Nurses' Association includes not only future nurses but also students interested in other types of health careers. The club visited the Harris Nurses' Club at Texas Christian University in November, at which a film was shown and refreshments served.

Included in the club's social activities was the annual Christmas dinner at the home of the sponsor, Mrs. Young. Above, Judy Cole, on behalf of the club, presents Mrs. Young with a gift.

"Bingo!" screams Joy Neel at the club's annual Christmas party. The club concluded a busy year by attending the annual state Future Nurses' Convention which took place in Amarillo April 22 and 23.



Karen Cox and Jimmy Sampson try a new style of swinging at the Press Club's picnic.

Press Club members turned back the hands of time and became "kids" again. Bob Buckman and Stephanie Reed enjoy climbing trees to "get away from it all" at the picnic.

Press Club Distributes Tartan

Distribution of the Tartan, student newspaper, was the main concern of the Press Club, membership of which was made up of staff members and other students interested in journalism.

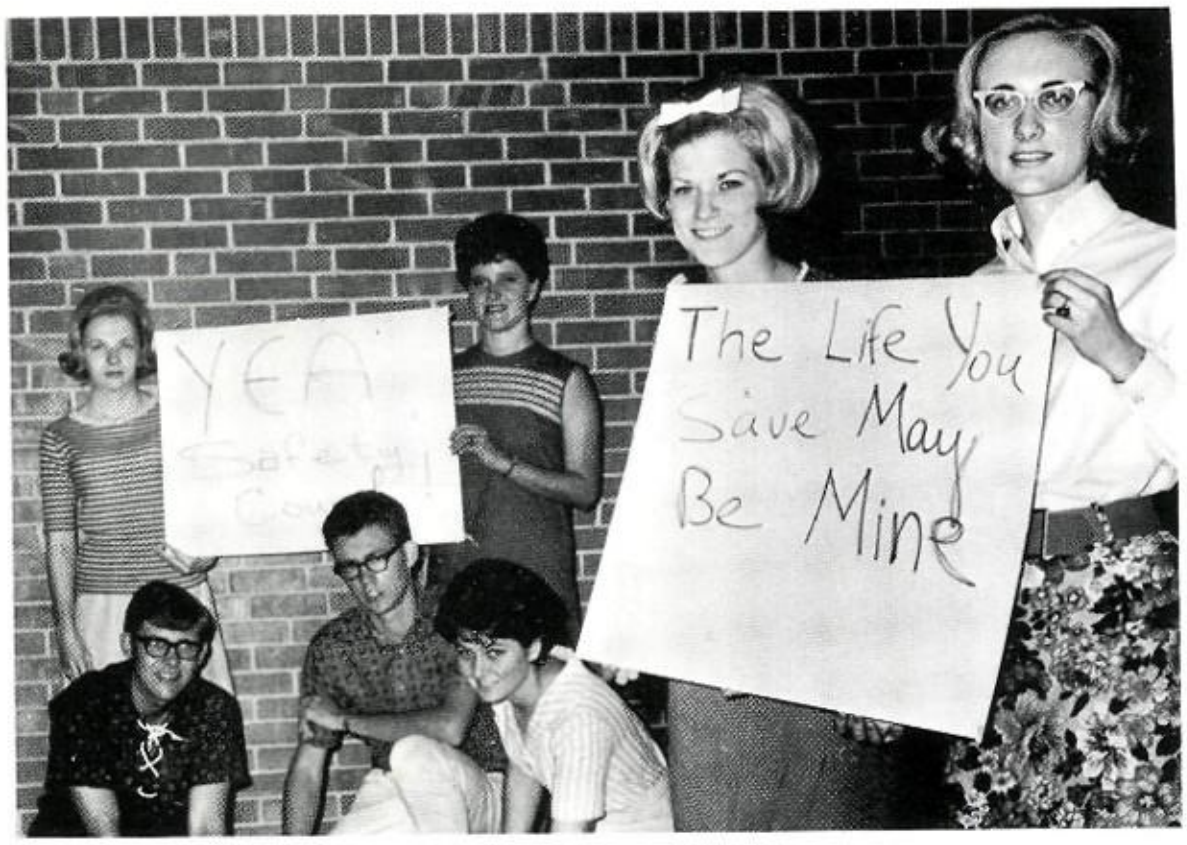
Among speakers for the club was Bob Scheiffer, Star-Telegram reporter who had been in Viet Nam.

Press Club members who were elected to Quill and Scroll included Ken Roselle, Bob Buckman, Rosemary Robbins, Burt Crow, Dot Follin, Peggy McMorries, David Wollenman, and Cindy Purcell.

Other honors of Press Club members included Ken's election to the vice presidency of the Fort Worth High School Press Association and Dot's winning a $100 Scholarship from Theta Sigma Phi.

Burt Crow, vice president; Rosemary Robbins, secretary; Ken Roselle, president; and Dot Follin, treasurer, challenge other Press Club members to a game of football.

Charlene Tong and Cindy Purcell listen intently (?) to Ken Roselle's speech.



Included in the Safety Council are Jo Ellen Copeland and Donna Mills, front; Joe Shockler, Scott Carter, and Elene Acuff, kneeling; Nina Atherton and Rosemary Robbins, standing.

Council Encourages Safety

Safety Club officers are Chuck Blackburn, secretary; Jo Ellen Copeland, prresident; and Robyn Wright, vice president. Mr. Tommy Weatherred sponsors the organization.

Illustrating car safety are Jo Ellen Copeland, Johnny Gilmartin, and Fay Hudgins, kneeling; Kay Hudgins, Susan Willington, Chuck Blackburn, Jane Blanton, and Allan McBrayer.

Mr. Kenneth Sisserson, holding the type of Bible sent to Viet Nam, Susie Vaughan, and Kathy Garner look on approvingly as Allan McBrayer scans through the song books which were purchased this year.

Bible Club Gives Goods to Needy

One of the projects of the Bible Club was giving can goods and money to a needy family. Terry Mealer jokingly attempts to balance one of the can goods on Stephanie Reed's head.

Officers of the Bible Club were David Worley, president; Sabra Hester, vice president; and Emily Emerson, secretary-treasurer. The president handled the selection of the daily Bible readings and Bible Club speakers. The club sent about 50 Bibles to soldiers in Viet Nam.

Pan Am Repairs Toys for Orphans

Paper, scissors, and plenty of fun go into the making of an active Spanish Club. The main project of Unit III was collecting toys, mending them, and finally wrapping them to make some orphan's Christmas a little brighter. Below, Debbie Thompson and Janie Hatchett display toys which they and others fixed. The club members also gave the children a pinata party and took them on an outing.

Above, Spanish Club officers pack toys which they donated to St. Teresa's Home. Spanish Club officers include Suzanne Stadler, secretary; Becky Michael, president, kneeling; Mr. Psomas, sponsor; Pam MacDowell, vice president; Debbie Thompson, reporter; Cynthia Jackson, PASF chairman; Debbie Oliver, treasurer; Larry Gatell, program chairman; and Robert Stewart, reporter, standing.

The club also collected canned goods and a turkey to give to Jose Delgado, EHHS' Mexican janitor, for his family's Thanksgiving dinner.

Debbie Oliver, with help from Robert Stewart, models her "reward" for having the second tackiest costume at the Spanish Club wiener roast. Debbie was awarded the booby prize after Cathy Himes won first prize. Members also participated in initiation ceremonies at the party October 30.

Officers of Pan Am Unit III are Mike Haley, treasurer; Ann Bond, president; Pam Perkins, secretary, front; Paula Bledsoe, vice president; Melody Cook, reporter, back.

Below: Pan Am members attend a combined dinner for all three club units at Pancho's.

Leading Unit II of Pan Am are Paula Reeves, secretary; Marjorie Tripp, reporter; Peggy Begley, president; Sherry Keeton, vice president; and Dana Bell, program chairman.

Pan Am members decorated "cascarones" and filled pinatas with candy for the children at the Wesley House in North Side.

Penitent slave Janet Riley precariously balances an olive as master Judy Stevens supervises.

"Sold!" shouts JCL president Bill Braddy at the annual slave auction as he "sells" Marilyn Wilson.

Slaves Attend JCL Banquet

Bill Braddy exercises authority over slave Mickey Morrow at the club's banquet held at Handley Methodist Church. With sheets providing the attire for many of the "Romans," JCL slaves had to perform tasks for their masters in order to win their freedom.

This year's officers of the Junior Classical League are Beverly Butts, secretary; Bill Brady, president; and Mary Buyers, treasurer. Not shown are Judy Stevens, vice president, and Johnny Gilmartin, historian.

JCL members enjoyed a Saturday picnic at the Eagle Mountain home of sophomore Emma Smith. Rain forced the group indoors.

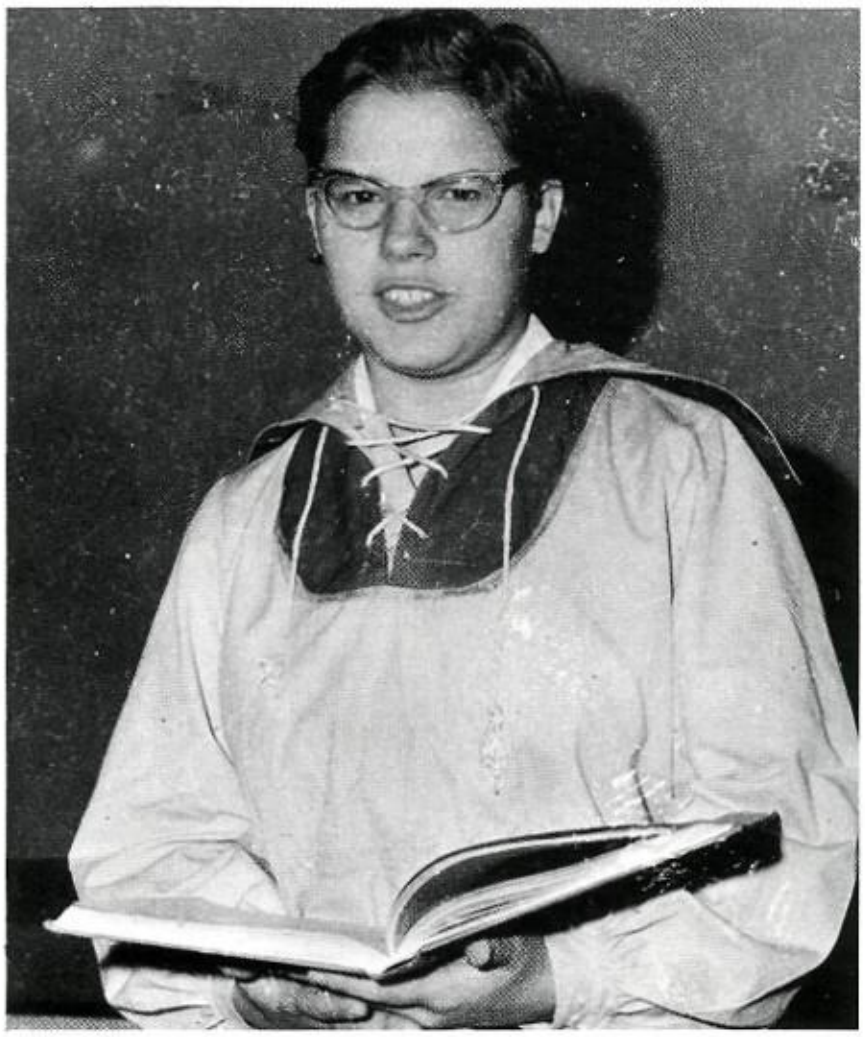
Entertainment for the Christmas party was furnished by Larry Tubb and Dean Crocker.

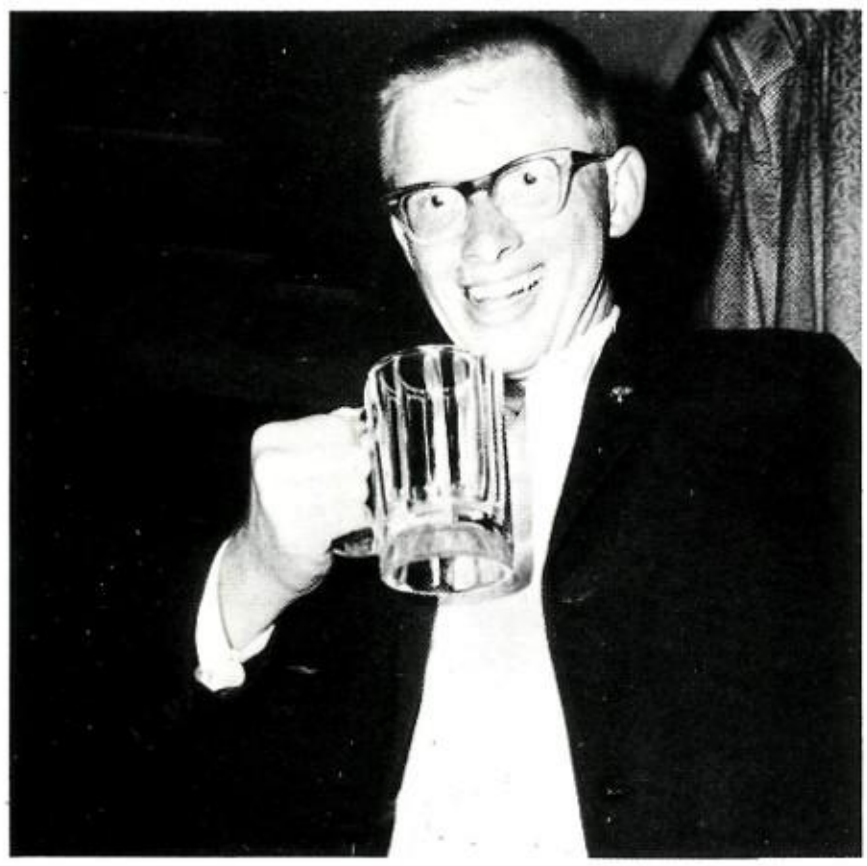
German Native Proves Asset to Club

Marion Chelf, who moved to Fort Worth from Germany during the summer, proved to be a real asset to both the German Club and the German classes. Marion created new interest in Germany and its customs, as well as improved everyone's German accents.

The annual dinner party at Der Schornsteinfeger was held in October. At Christmas time the club held its party at Ricky Tripp's home, where a band made up of several club members played German tunes, and some traditional German dishes were prepared. There was also a bicycle trip to Randol Mill Park in the spring.



A native of Germany, Marion Chelf reads in German for the second year students.



"Trink, trink, Brüderlein trink," sings Larry Tubb at the club's dinner party at Dor Schornsteinfeger.

Officers in the German Club this year are Ricky Tripp, president; Mrs. Carroll, sponsor; Morris McVean, vice president; and Sharon Berliner, secretary-treasurer.

During the spring holidays the German Club went on a six-mile bicycle trip to Randol Mill Park. Among those members participating were Terry Salfen, Billy Gregg, Morris McVean, William Greene, and guests, Courtney Carroll and Jeffrey Cresap.

Janet Schober, Nina Atherton, Carolyn Amos, and other German Club members attended the Faschings Festival dinner at Der Schornsteinfeger, which was sponsored by the Poly German Club.

French Class Goes Western

French Club on December 20 had a Christmas party during which they caroled to the elderly in French. In the spring they attended an annual dinner party at a French restaurant.

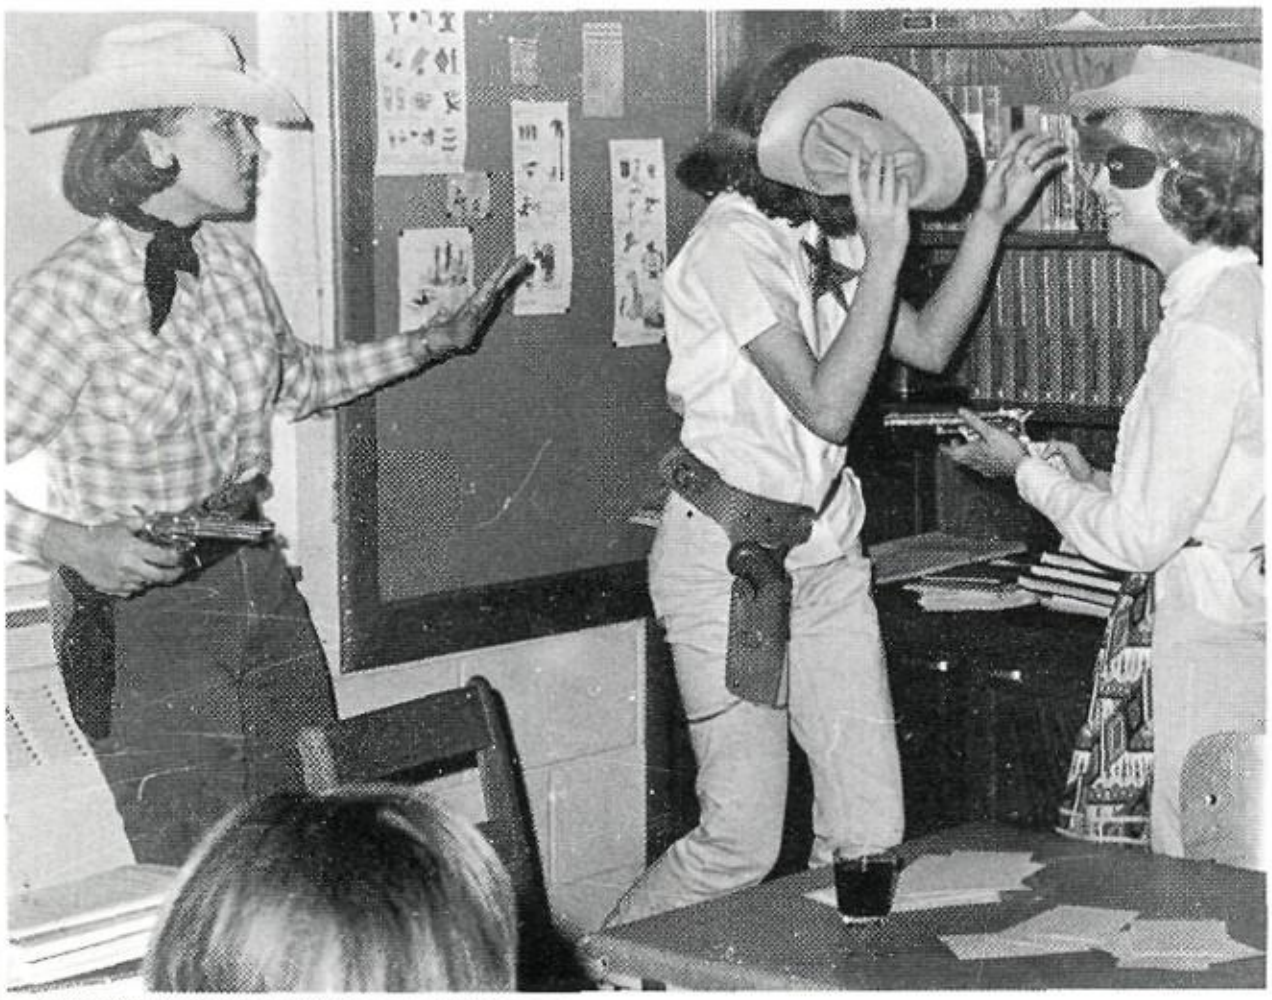
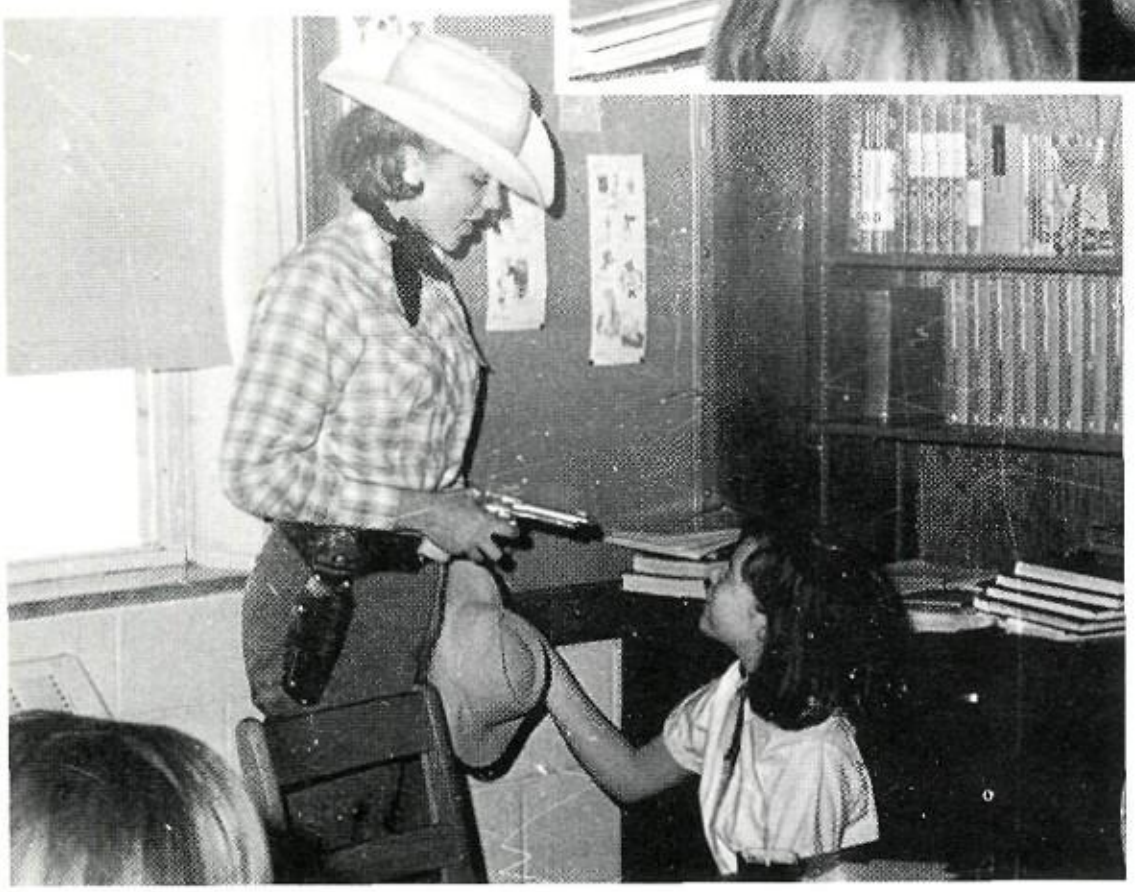
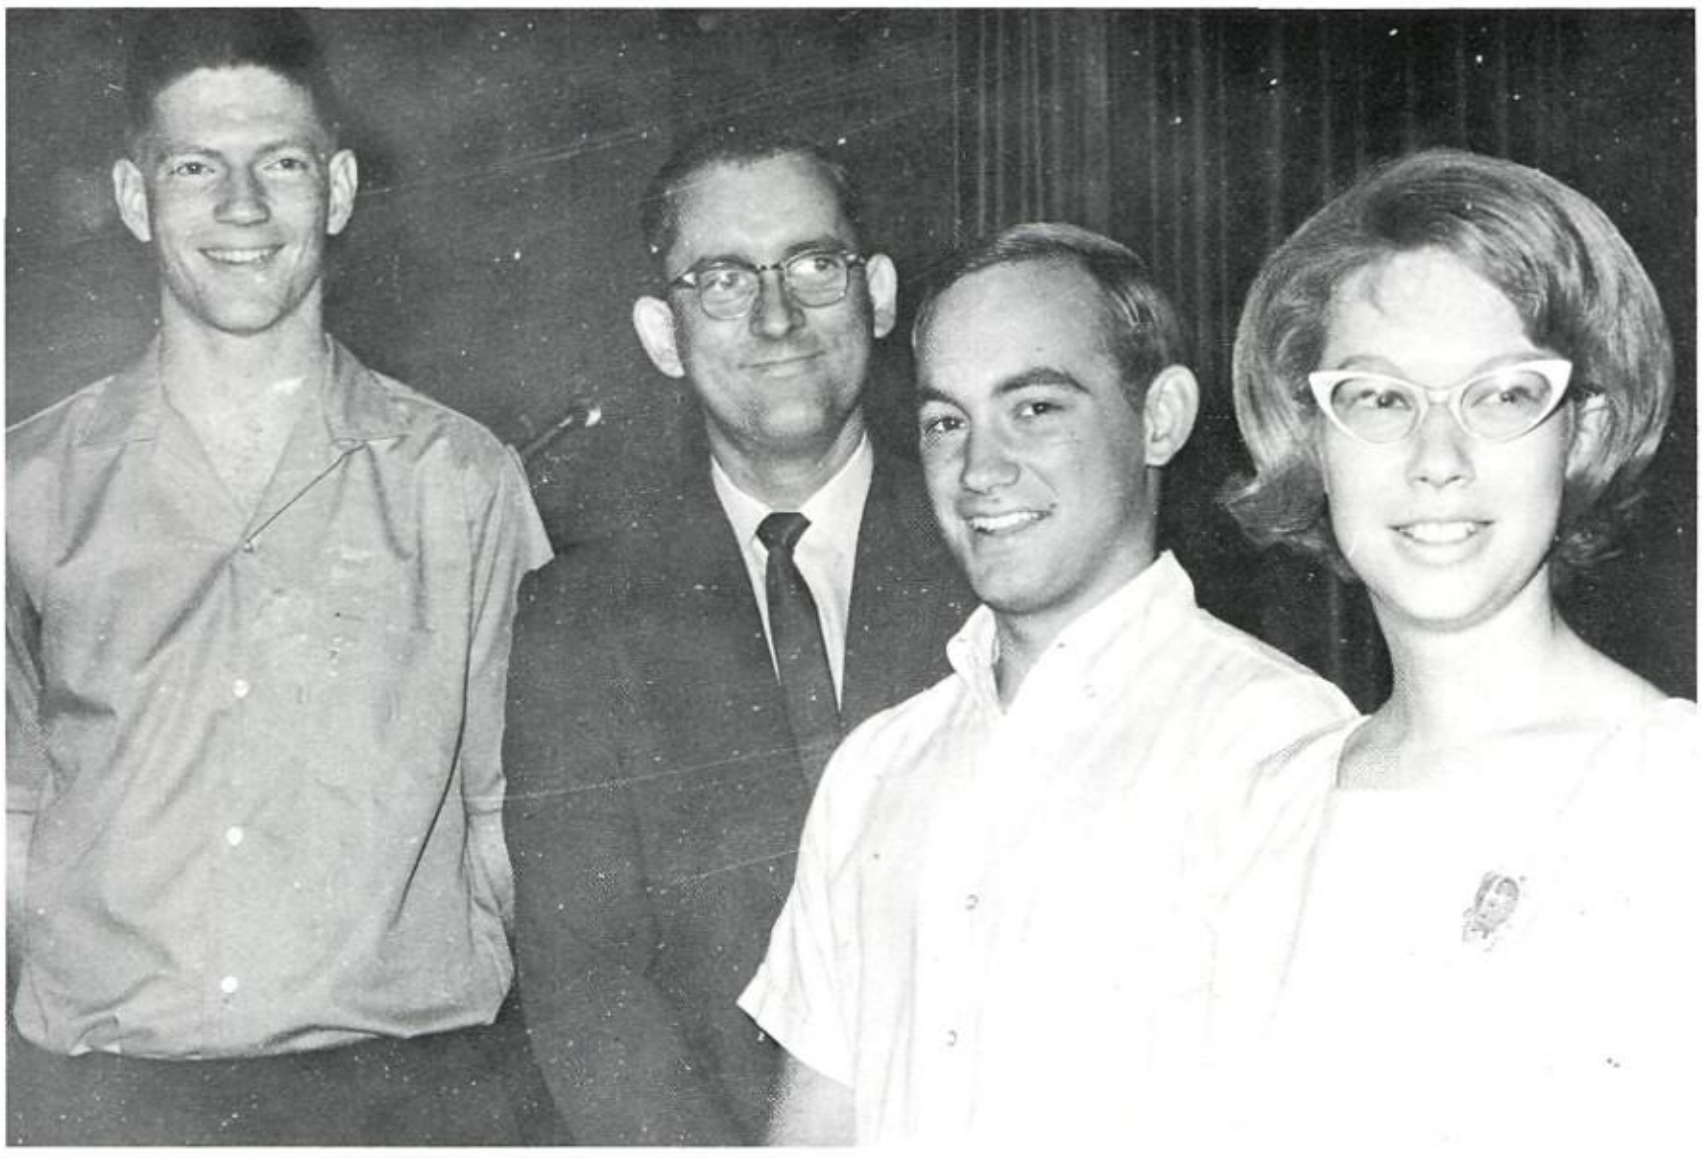
Right: "Wait! I'm the Lone Ranger," cries Lynda Lynch to villain Leslie Green and Nancy Cottingham.





Left: "Monsieur, vous etes formidable, tres magnifique," says Nancy Cottingham to Leslie Green. French plays were given in class as the three week tests. Plays given were those enacting French cowboys, batman, a girl's first date, and the princess and the pea.

Student Council Holds Annual Picnic



Student Council officers include Ralph Hill, vice president; Mr. Mitchell, sponsor; Tommy Thompson, president; and Elsie Grunow, secretary. Mr. Kirk also sponsors the council.

The Student Council held its annual picnic at Oakland Park on May 22 at which members of the council were presented their council keys.

Red Cross Passes $300 Mark

Red Cross officers include Candi Cantrell, secretary; Janell Mitchell, projects; Donna Davis, treasurer; and Rusty Wright, vice president. President is Pinkie Bailey.

The Eastern Hills Chapter of the Red Cross kicked off its annual drive on November 17. The Red Cross representatives collected over $300 which had been set as a goal. On November 24 a sock hop was given by the Red Cross in the school cafeteria as a means of showing appreciation to the student body.

O'Dell Takes Bridge Title

Sponsored by Mrs. Sara Tannahill and Mrs. Valda Carroll, the first Fort Worth high school Bridge Club was organized this year by interested bridge players. The meetings were held once every two weeks at the houses of various members. Top bridge player for the year was David O'Dell; Mrs. Tannahill finished a close second.

William Greene and Ricky Price wait for Peggy Begley to pass or bid.

Mrs. Carroll instructs John Daniell in the bidding of his hand, while Morris McVean looks intently at his own hand.

Honor Society Grows to 162

Eastern Hills' chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual program on May 24, at which members received recognition. Senior members received pins; junior members, certificates; and sophomore members, cards.

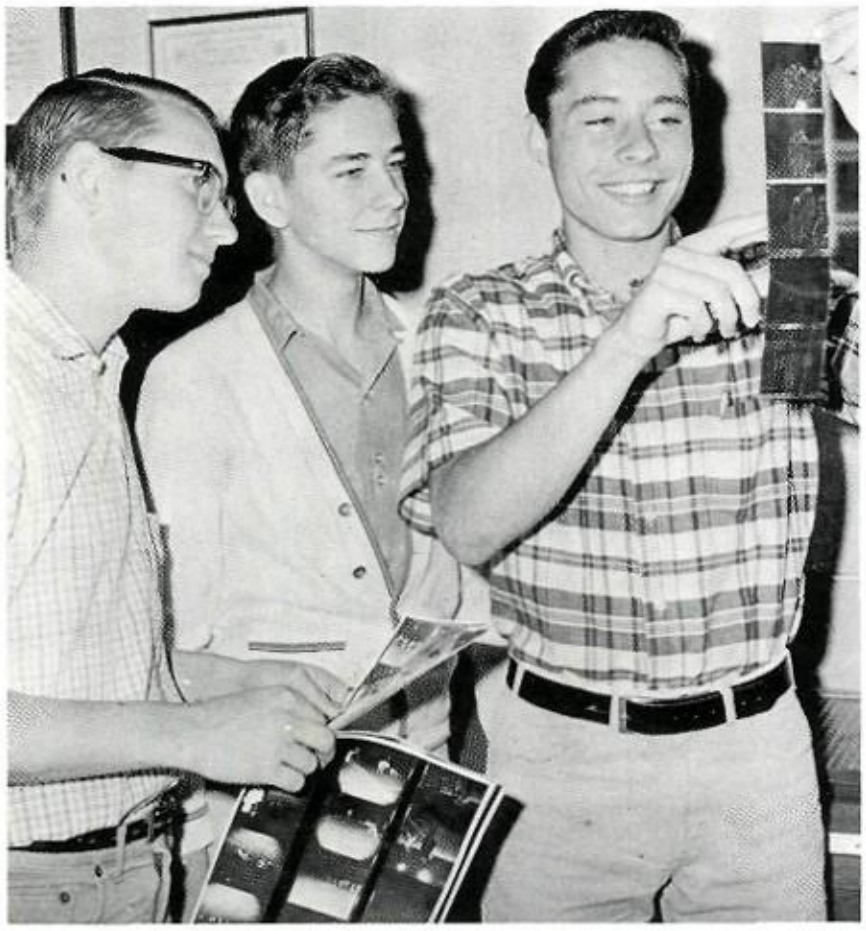
To become a member of the Honor Society a student must attend Eastern Hills for one year and must maintain all A's and B's for one year.

At right are the sophomore members of the Honor Society.

Cathy Sells, personality editor, defies David Banks to take a close-up of her. David is in his second year as photographer and will be head photographer next year. As personality editor, Cathy had to set up all pictures of sports queens and other royalty.

Editor Emily Emerson tries to explain what kind of picture she wants Ken Roselle to shoot. Ken, who has worked on the staff for three years, has won several awards for his photography in the Fort Worth High School Press Association's contests.

Clan Staff Adds Juniors



Working on the sports section are juniors, John Grunow and David Worley, and Ronnie Salfen, a senior. This is the first year juniors have been on the staff, with the exception of photographers.

Sabra Hester, club editor, discusses ideas for her section with Sharon Berliner, copy editor.

Miss King, Clan sponsor, laughs as she reads the gift certificate presented to her by the staff Christmas. It was made out to Jan, her twin sister, by mistake.

Class editors were Sue Crowley, junior; Laurie Parish, sophomore; and Rita Thornton, senior. Their biggest problem was identifying pictures and spelling names right.

Business Staff Handles Over $7,000

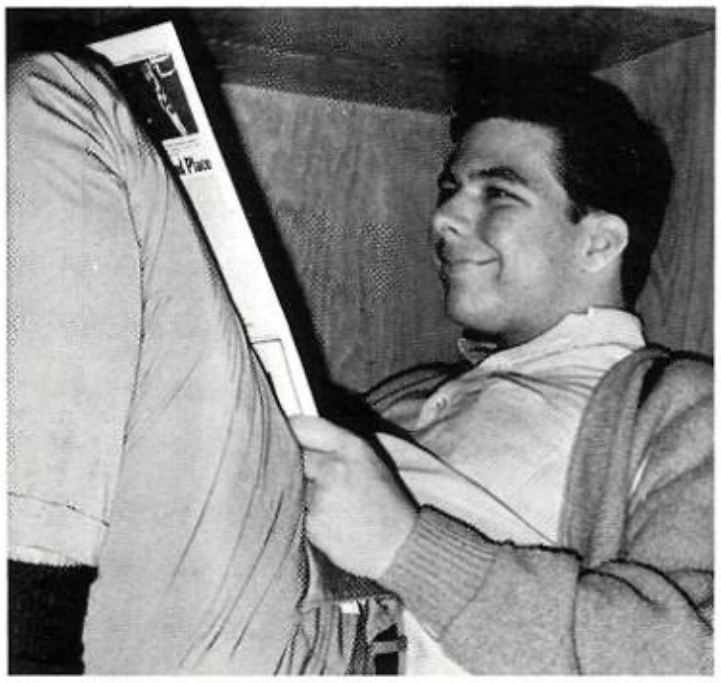
Susan Schroeder, business manager, and Barbara George, her assistant, handled more than $7,000 as payments for annuals and class pictures.

Ken Roselle and Rosemary Robbins, co-editors of the Tartan, give stories to Mrs. Priddy, Tartan sponsor.

Dot Follin, business manager, is responsible for the billing of some thirty advertisers.



Joe Walton smiles smugly at a full page ad in the Tartan. As advertising manager, Joe is in charge of obtaining ads for each issue of the Tartan.

Paper Rates All-State

Produced by first semester journalism students, the Tartan won an All-Texas Award from the Texas High School Press Association in Denton, where staff members attended a journalism conference in December. The Tartan also won several awards in the city contest sponsored by the Fort Worth Press.

"How will I ever make the deadline?" says class editor, Peggy McMorris. Tartan members have to meet paper deadlines every week.

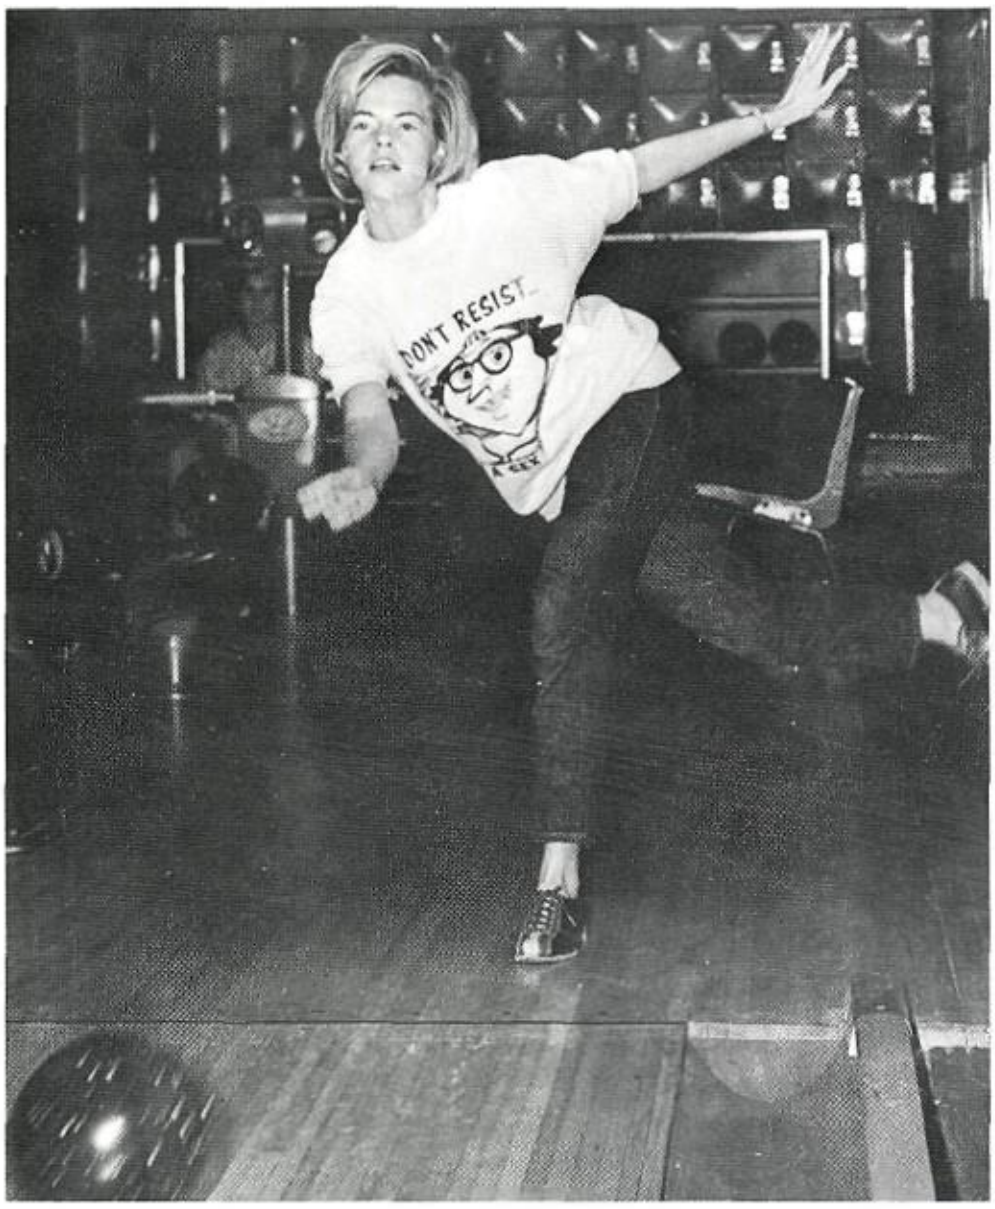
Page editors Kathy Green and Cindy Purcell work on the copy that will be sent to the printer.

Bob Buckman, features editor, checks copy on the Tartan. News editor, Burt Crow, gives helpful advice. Burt also served as editor of the literary magazine.

Charlene Tong, circulation manager, types a story as Bobby Bounds supplies her with some of the facts.

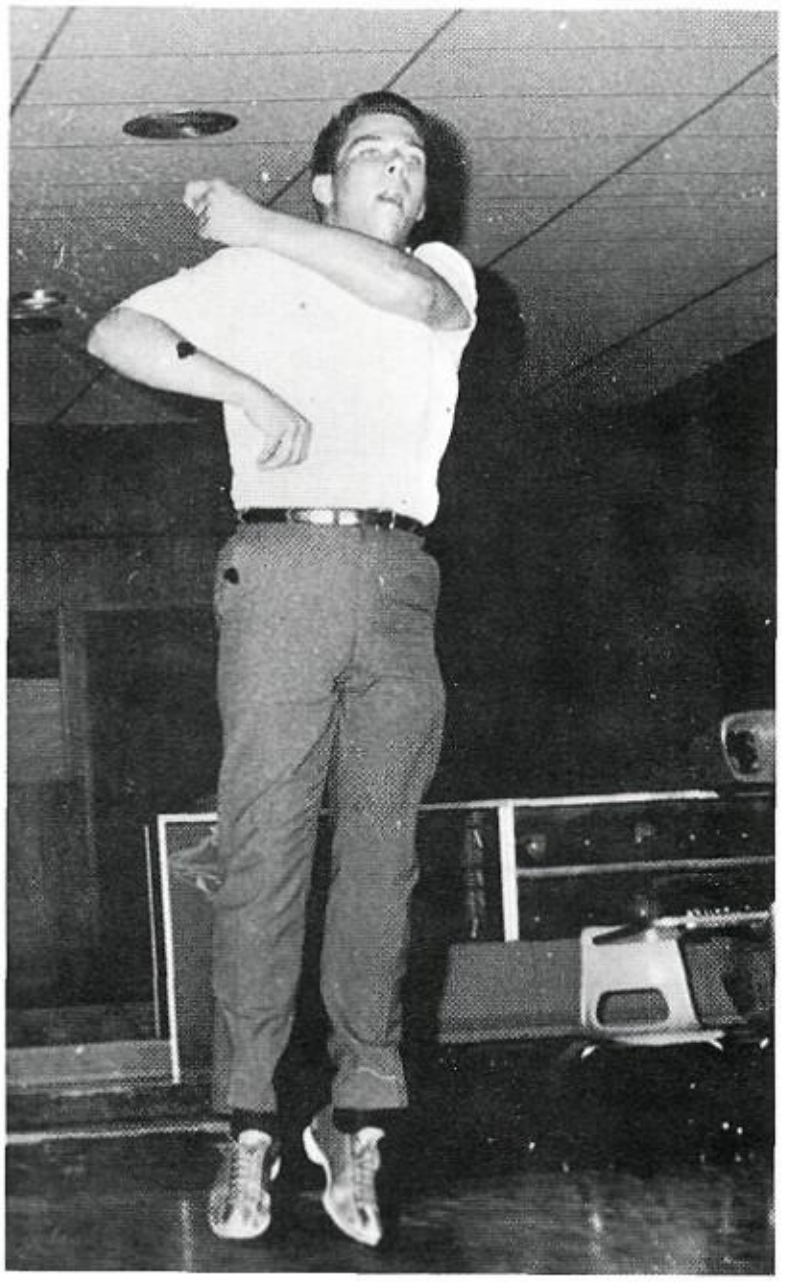
Unlike most area schools, Eastern Hills does not offer a course in journalism in the spring. Therefore, students taking the class in the fall are required to produce a paper after only three weeks of journalistic training. Students work on both the Tartan, a bi-weekly publication, and the literary magazine, Echoes from the Highlands, which comes out in the spring.

Exchange editors, Glenn McEowen and Jimmy Sampson, read newspapers from other schools in hopes of getting some new ideas for the Tartan. They are responsible for mailing the Tartan to other schools.



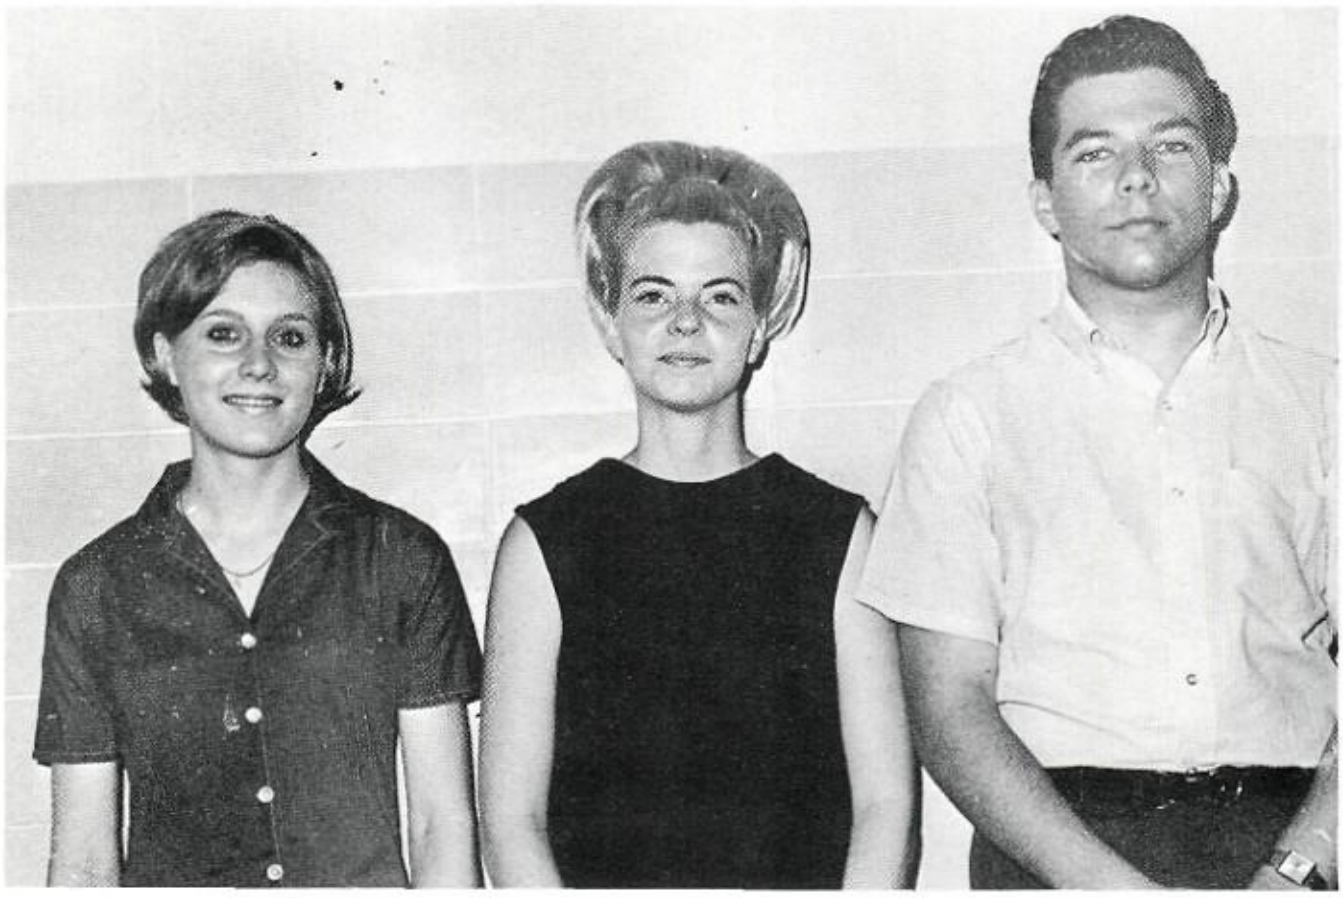
Pam Vermillion attempts a strike at the tournament sponsored by the Bowling Club. The club met at Bowlerland on Monday afternoons.

"Strike!" screams Joe Walton while bowling in tournament play.



Bowling Club Awards Trophies

This year trophies were given to a girl and a boy with the high game and with the high series. Sponsor Mr. Mitchell was also presented a trophy by bowling club members.



Officers of the bowling club are Carole Smith, secretary; Pam Vermillion, president; Joe Walton, treasurer.

Some of the activities of the select choir were attending a city wide clinic at TWC, singing in the all-city choir, singing for Eastern Hills' open house, singing for the Bible Club and Meadowbrook Methodist Church, and entertaining Sagamore Hill and Birdville Elementary schools.

Mike Jones is congratulated by Major L. S. Jennings upon being promoted to Lieutenant Colonel and upon receiving the PMS ribbon.

Members of the drum and bugle choir are Ken Roselle, Allen Bell, David Mercer, Eddie Mercer, sponsor Lacrescia Kilgore, Donald Jeans, and John Bailey.

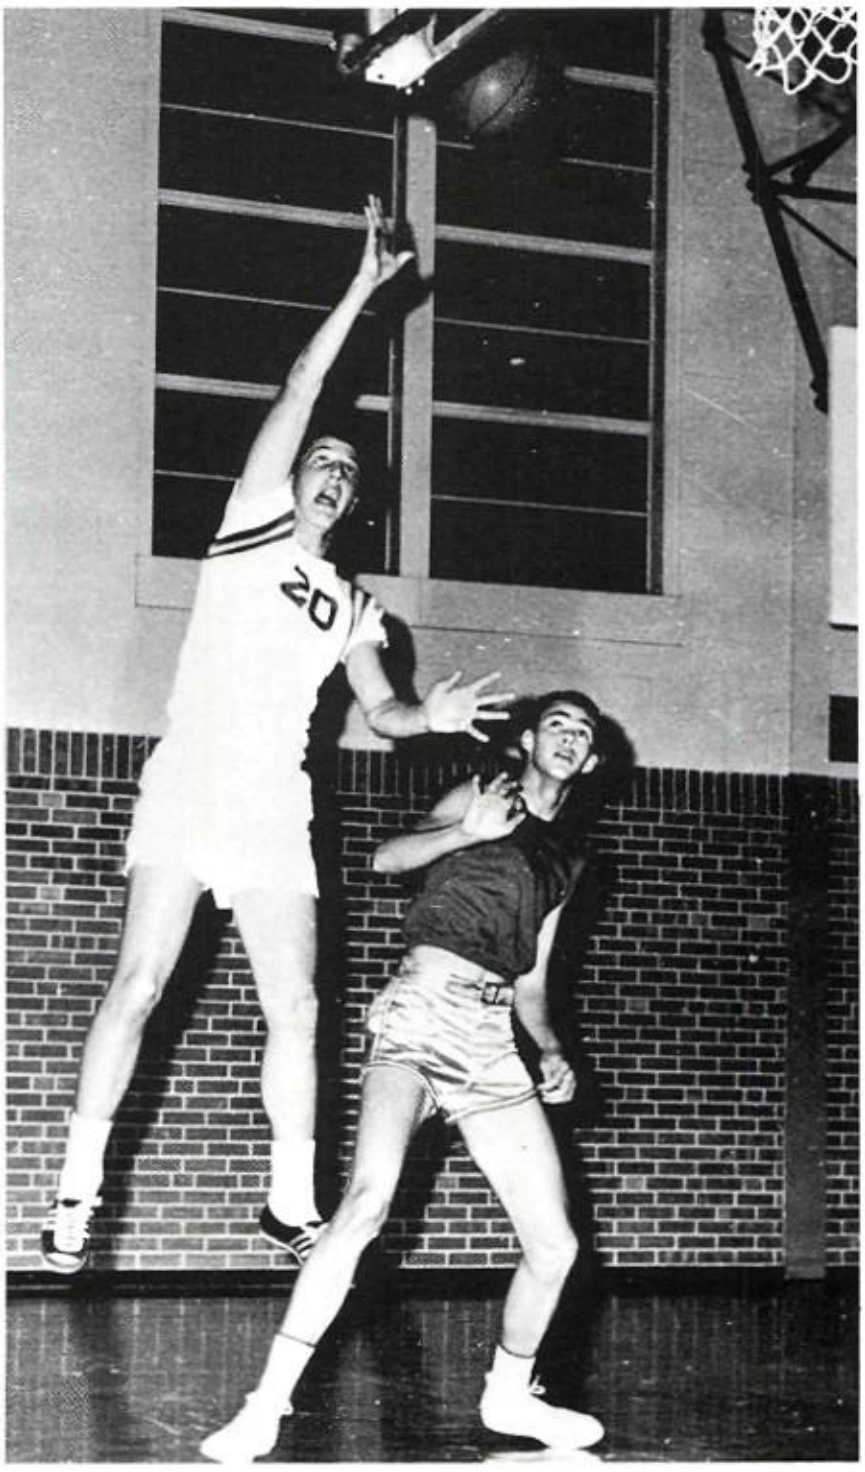
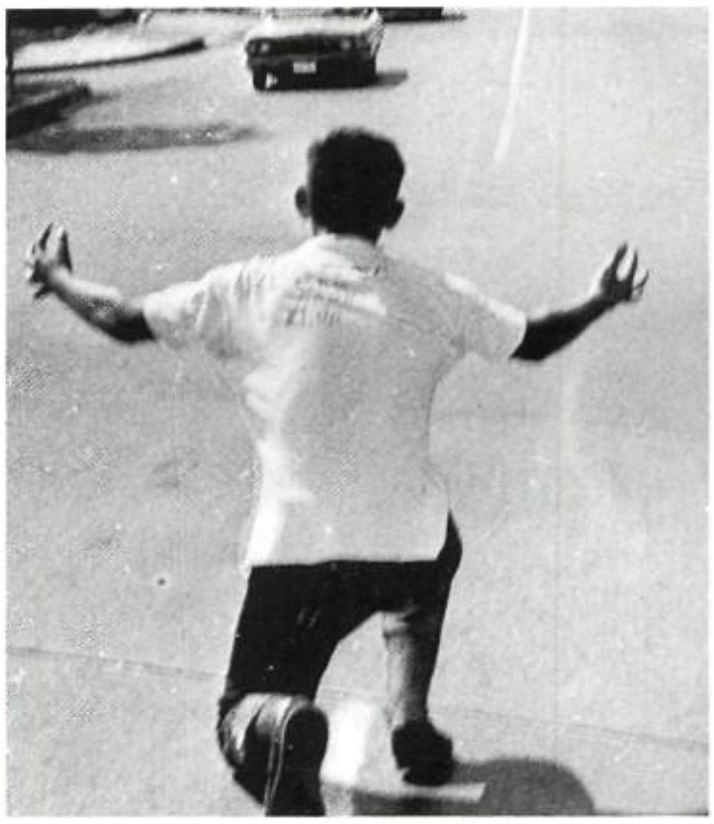
ROTC Cagers Win City Championship

"After you," says the perfect gentleman, George Curl, to sponsor, Lucretia Kilgore, at the ROTC car wash, proceeds from which were used to finance the ROTC wiener roast.



Jimmy Stevens (20) makes a basket for the ROTC team in citywide play. Stevens and Mike Haley were co-captains of this year's ROTC team. Stevens was also high point man of the team, with Haley being second.

Tim Vann scores another two pointer as opposing players try in vain to stop him. The team participated in the Junior Basketball Tournament, which was held at Texas Christian University.



Steve Napper tries to catch a few customers for the ROTC car wash held at a local service station.

1965 Football

Wrap-Up

Finishing fourth in district standings, the 1965 Highlanders, with 4 returning starters, compiled a 4-6 won-loss record for the season. Injuries hitting the starting halfback, Eddie Douglas, hampered the running attack throughout the fall.

The Clansmen scored 100 points for the year while they yielded 162 points to their opponents. Leading 4A-5 in pass defense, Hills was third in overall defense, allowing an average of 216 yards per game. The offense gained an average of 192 yards a game.

End Jerry Miller led the district in pass receiving with 19 catches for 358 yards and also the Highlander scoring with 5 touchdowns for 30 points. Guiding the team was quarterback Tommy Thompson, who completed 34 of 90 pass attempts for 451 yards.

The main workhorse on the ground was fullback Gary Smyers, who gained 515 yards for third in 4A-5 rushing. Rounding out the backfield power was Les Griffin. An excellent defensive star was David Smith. Twice he earned the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram lineman of the week award.

Handling the punting chores for the Highlanders was end John Hetherly, averaging 35.8 yards per punt. Even though the record was 4-6, the Clansmen made a respectable showing in each game by team spirit and the loyalty and support of the Eastern Hills student body.

Season Record

The enthusiasm of the Highlander bench during the Tech game reflects the spirit and fighting attitude of the football team.

Tri-captains for 1965 were Tommy Thompson, David Smith, and Jerry Miller. Thompson was the starting quarterback for the Highlanders. Smith was an end and made all-district as a linebacker. Miller received all-district recognition at safety and end and honorable mention all-state at end.

Eastern Hills opened the season on a sour note with a 21-0 loss at the hands of the defensive-minded Richland Rebels at Birdville Stadium.

The show belonged almost entirely to Richland as they amassed 225 yards on the ground while leaving Hills with a minus 17 yards rushing.

The only offense the Highlanders could muster occurred in the last half with end Jerry Miller and quarterback Tom Harmon piecing together a small aerial display. Not only did Miller make some fine catches, but he also was a demon on defense.

The spirited Rebels crossed the Highlander goal line once in each of the first three quarters on runs by quarterback Joe Walker and fullback Jimmy Tiffany. The Clansmen were hampered by injuries and key penalties throughout the game.

Eastern Hills bounced back from a shocking defeat at the hands of Richland to bomb the Haltom Buffaloes in the Buffaloes' stadium 14-13.

The winning combination was 6 out of 7 passes completed from quarterback Tommy Thompson to end Jerry Miller, covering a total of 61 yards. The drive was climaxed by a 5-yard pass to Miller in the end zone, 2:02 minutes deep in the fourth quarter. Thompson's point-after-touchdown put the Highlanders in the lead 14-13. The Buffaloes ended their last drive in the Eastern Hills end zone with a 12-yard pass, but an ineligible receiver downfield nullified the play. The next play ended the ball game for Haltom as Pete Jensen intercepted a stray pass.

Les Griffin sprinted 8-yards for Hills' first TD. Haltom's two touchdowns came on runs of 6 and 42-yards by David Watkins. The deciding point, however, was blocked by a fierce onslaught of Clansmen.

The annual out-of-town trek saw the Clansman frustrated in the final minute of play, climaxing an exciting, seesaw contest between the Highlanders and the Trojans of Waco University High.

After a scoreless first quarter, Tommy Thompson threw a 17-yard TD strike to Pete Jensen. Again in the third quarter, Thompson took to the air and hit Jerry Miller on a seven yarder for paydirt. A pass to Jensen for the extra points ended the Clansmen's scoring.

As the game wore on, however, the back of Waco's streaking Mike Robins became a familiar sight to the frustrated Highlanders. Good blocking and leg power enabled Robins to score on runs of three, 15, and two yards. Robins' last effort wiped out a 14-13 Eastern Hills advantage with 7:50 to play.

The Highlanders used most of the remaining time to struggle from their own 28 to less than a foot from the Waco goal line, where Hills ran out of downs, time, and luck.

Sparked by the running of halfback Larry Gatlin and the passing of quarterback Eddie Harris, the Odessa Bronchos galloped past Eastern Hills 42-12 at Farrington Field on October 2.

Clansmen registered their only touchdowns in the first and third periods, the first coming on a nine-yard pass to end Jerry Miller from quarterback Tommy Thompson. Fullback Gary Smyers ran for the other tally, blasting through from the two-yard line.

Gatlin scored four of Odessa's touchdowns on pass receptions of 75, nine, and 77 yards and a 46-yard run. Harris threw another touchdown pass to end Lennie Givens from two yards away. The first Broncho tally was a two-yard run by fullback Mark Chapman in the second quarter.

Jerry Miller, the sure-handed Eastern Hills senior, intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble to lead the Highlander defense.

Avenging last year's loss to North Side, the sturdy defense of Eastern Hills set up the game's only touchdown and rendered North Side's offense completely punchless.

Gary Smyers piled up 91 yards in 14 carries and stood as the game's only potent ball carrier. In addition to a 53-yard scamper in the fourth quarter, he crashed five yards through the Steer line for the only score late in the second period.

The traditionally rough annual clash saw a battle of hard-hitting defenses. Fullback Danny Sides, who regularly provides offensive force for the Steers, was injured and unable to play. Their running game thwarted, the Steers were forced to take to the air and cashed in only three passes out of an attempted 19 for a mere 14 yards.

Highlanders Jack White, Newcomb Payne, Jon Thornburg, Ricky Price, David Smith, Dennis York, and Jerry Miller were defensive standouts.

By whipping Poly 13-6, Eastern Hills climbed to the top of the district standings. Only after the final play, however, were the Highlanders able to breathe easily enough to celebrate.

After a scoreless first half, the Clansmen jumped into the lead early in the third period when Pete Jensen picked off a Parrot pass and sprinted 55 yards for the touchdown. Tommy Thompson's second conversion try failed after the first was nullified by a penalty.

Poly knotted the count midway in the third period after punter John Hetherly was smothered by the Parrots on the nine-yard line. Tommy Harmon, playing for the injured Thompson, then led an eight-play drive for the winning TD, climaxed by a three-yard touchdown charge by fullback Gary Smyers.

In the final moments of the game, Poly returned the Highlander force but couldn't beat the clock. With 37 seconds and 14 yards separating Hills from victory, the EH defense tightened and held the Parrots to two incompleted passes.

Chaining the Bulldogs from the end zone in the fourth quarter, Eastern Hills was able to defeat Technical 21-13 at Handley Field. The Clansmen exhibited their best offensive performance of the year, gaining 208 by foot and 147 yards by the air.

In the first period, Hills pieced together a 55-yard drive, ending with a 7-yard TD run by quarterback Tommy Thompson. Again, Thompson sent the team downfield 70 yards, capping the drive with a 13-yard touchdown pass to end David Smith. Fullback Gary Smyers was the main workhorse of the drives, gaining 159 yards for the night.

Tech came back fast and scored on a 43-yard pass from quarterback George Taplin to end Alton Hargrove. Hills took the following kickoff and loped 70 yards for its last touchdown with Thompson hitting end Jerry Miller with a 25-yard aerial for the score.

The Bulldogs roared back in the third period and scored on a 37-yard toss from quarterback Freddy Pena to end Lupe Deleon. The outcome still was hazy in the fourth period until Highlander back Tony Smith intercepted a Tech pass, ending the drive. Throughout the night David Smith, Miller, and Herr came up with game-saving tackles for the defense.

Eastern Hills's final game of the season was a 10-0 loss to district champion Arlington Heights. The Highlanders moved the ball well but were halted close to the goal by a stout Yellow Jacket defense.

The Highlanders penetrated to the Heights five-yard line in the second and third periods but both times were unable to punch across a score. The first time they were left stranded at the eight with no remaining downs. The second surge was started by a fumble recovered at the Jacket's 20 by Charles Smith. Tommy Thompson threw a pass to end Jerry Miller, who made a beautiful catch which set up a first down at the six. One play later, the ball rested on the five, where it stayed after three incompleted passes.

Heights's offense then overcame its sluggishness long enough to score a 20-yard field goal with 7:06 remaining to play. A Thompson pass intercepted at the 12-yard line set up Arlington Heights's final score.

Defensive standouts for Hills were Gordon Ball, Jerry Miller, David Smith, and Bill Sweeney.

Quarterback Allen Stanford (16) cuts back in an attempt to elude a would-be tackler.

Defensive Assault Stymies Opponents

"The secret to the success of the B team was the defense," according to the B team coach, Tommy Runnels. Headed by Dick Burt, Rodney McConnell, Steve Howell, John Hobbs, Todd Webster, Mike Carter, and Mike Fernihough, the defensive unit allowed only two opponents to score against the team while compiling a season record of seven wins, one loss, and two ties.

The linebacker slots were filled by Steve Luebbehusen, Jim Fleming, and Paul McAlister, while the secondaries, Tony Smith, Joey Herr, David Moore, Larry Richardson, and Frank Barnes, rounded out the unit.

The offense amassed a total of 143 points. Carrying the ball for the team was fullback Luebbehusen, supplemented by halfbacks David Leboeuf, flankerbacks Herr, Moore, McAlister, ends Pat Wherland, Barnes, and Howell, and quarterback Allen Stanford.

David Wollenman (22) springs high in an attempt to control a tipoff during the North Side game.

Eastern Hills' basketball team fared well through the 1965-1966 campaign, battling their opponents to second place in the district with a 9-3 won-loss record and a season's total of 20 wins and 7 losses. Speaking well for their efforts is that 6 of their 7 losses were to champions of various districts in Texas, the only tarnished defeat being at the hands of the Poly Parrots.

Starting for the Highlanders throughout the season were guards David Hanebutt and Jerry Miller, forwards John Hetherly, who replaced injured Ralph Hill, and David Wollenman, and center Wayne Nash. Nash, who was All-District, placed second in the district with 15.7 points per game average.

At the free throw line, the Highlanders sank 171 of 295 shots for 58%, while hitting on 43% of their shots from the field. Another strong point of the Clansmen's game was their power under the boards, grabbing an average of 42 rebounds per game in comparison to their opponents' average of 19.

Nash and Hill served as co-captains for the team. Managing the team were David O'Dell and Steve Wellborn.

"B" Team Promises 1967 Contention

Averaging 55 points a game, the Highlander "B" team compiled a district record of 8 wins and 4 losses. These four losses (to Paschal twice and Arlington Heights and Poly once) represent the teams which are predicted to be contenders for next year's title.

Throwing the discus for the Highlanders were Paul McAlister, Wade Henson, and Jeter Fulbright.

The job of caring for the track team and the equipment was handled by Clint Averitte and Stuart Stovall.

Eric Thompson ran the mile for Hills.

Stretching for extra inches, Pete Jensen broad jumps in the district meet to capture third place.

As a team, the Highlanders never won a meet, but outstanding individual performance enabled Hills to gain recognition. Charles Reid broke the school record in the half-mile with a 1:56.0 and also won district. Pete Jensen set a Highlander high hurdles record with 14.6, also tying the low hurdle mark of 19.8. The mile relay surprised Coach Willingham and everyone else when Reid, anchor man, came out of nowhere in the district meet to nip Paschal at the finish line for second place. This run by Reid, Artie Erwin, Don Erwin, and David Smith broke the year-old record by one tenth of a second. The anchor leg of 49.9 run by Reid was only the second time a Highlander has broken 50 seconds in the relay. The first was by Buzz Gardner in 1964. Besides the boys mentioned above, lettermen were Wade Henson in the discus and Eric Thompson in the mile. They won fourth and second, respectively, in district.

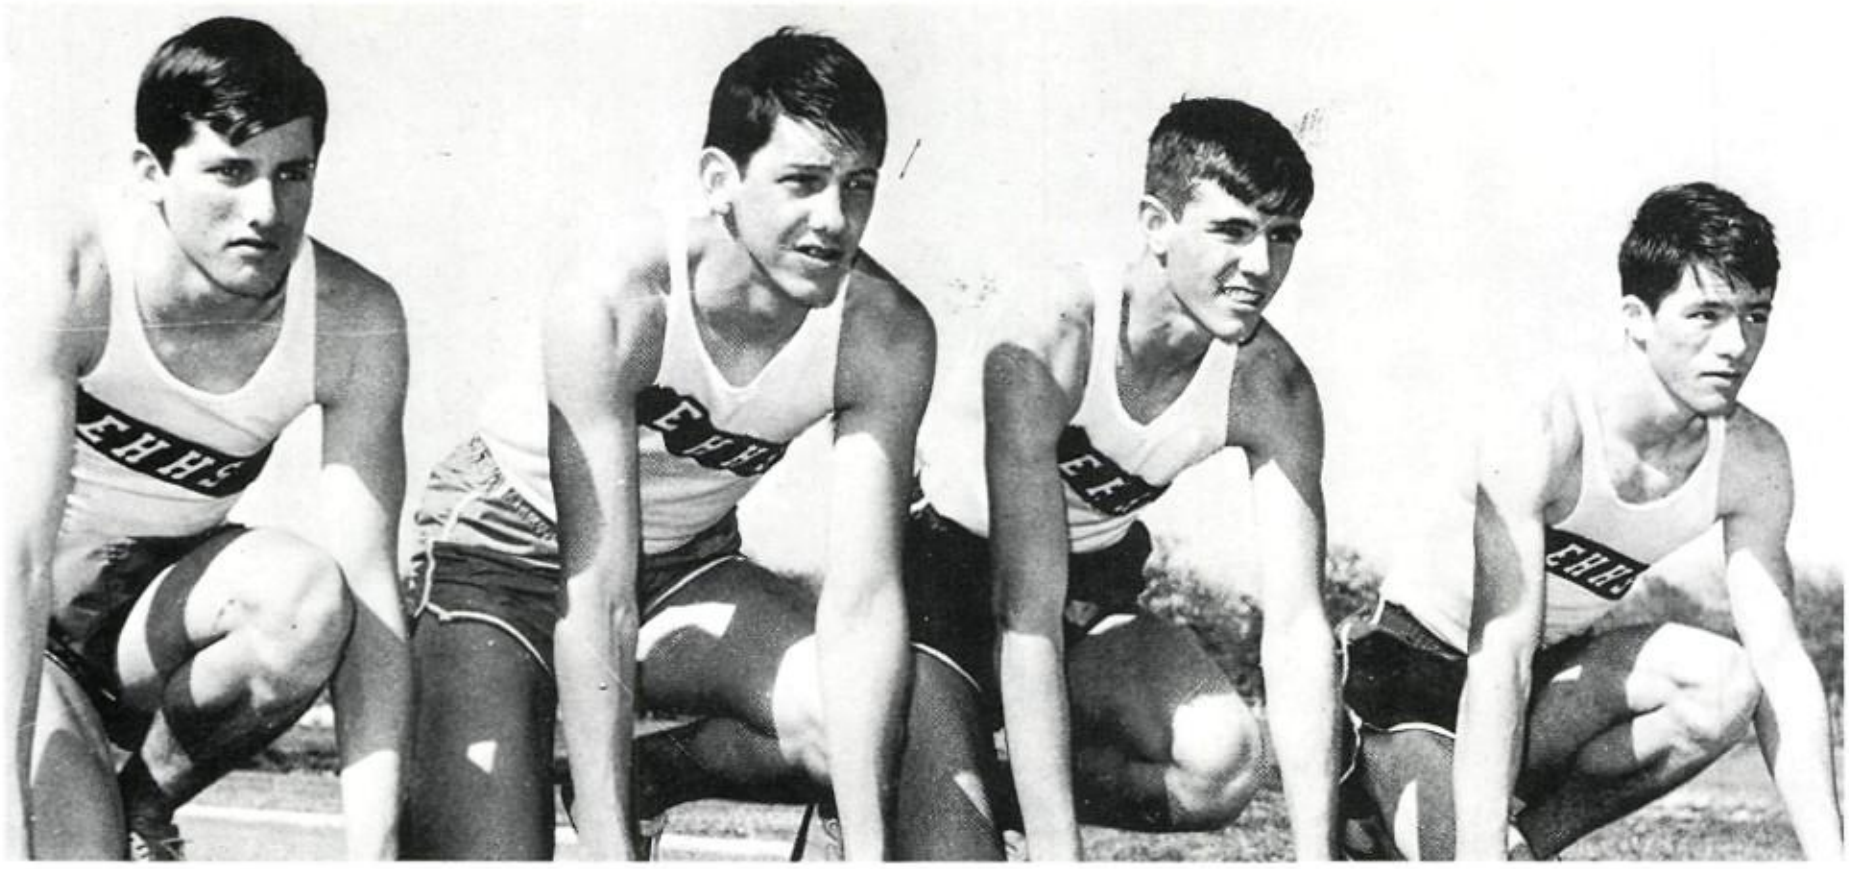
Winner of the 880 yard run in the district meet, Charles Reid, is congratulated at the winner's platform.

Members of the A team sprint relay were Artie Erwin, David Humphreys, Jimmie Rose, and David Smith.

Competing in the low and high hurdles for Eastern Hills was Pete Jensen.

Eastern Hills' broad jumpers were Charles Noah and Pete Jensen. Steve Barnes competed in the high jump.



Participating in the quarter mile were Artie Erwin, Larry Richardson, Herbie Herbert, and Don Erwin.

Coach Willingham's faith in sophomore track men promises good potential for future Highlander cinder teams. Artie Erwin was the sparkplug, running in the sophomore sprint relay, "A" team sprint relay, quarter mile, and the "A" team mile relay which placed second in district. Other promising sophomores include Larry Richardson, Herbie Herbert, and Freddy Bowling.

Herbie Herbert, Artie Erwin, Barry Bailey, and Freddy Bowling were the Clansmen who ran on the sophomore sprint relay.

May 19 was the heartbreaking climax of the best baseball team Eastern Hills has produced. Good defense and strong pitching had propelled the team to a district playoff with Arlington Heights, leaving a wake of 22 victories and 5 defeats. Fate delivered the stumbling block on the road to glory when two weeks of steady rain interrupted district play and the Highlanders winning streak. By the time the monsoon season had passed, the team had rusted enough to allow Heights to take the second half.

By virtue of capturing the first-half crown, the Clansmen were thrown into a playoff with the Yellow Jackets. Although Terry Newton hurled a one-hitter the first game, Heights squeezed an unearned run in the sixth to win 1-0. The second game was another one-hitter, this time by Carley Williams, and Hills' bats came to life for a 4-1 victory. However, on May 19, Heights won 7 to 2.

Six of the nine starters on the Highlander team gained berths on the district team. Mike Isley, Tommy Thompson, and Tommy Harmon made first team all-district, while Eddie Douglas, John Hetherly, Sam Phillips, and Carley Williams made the second team.

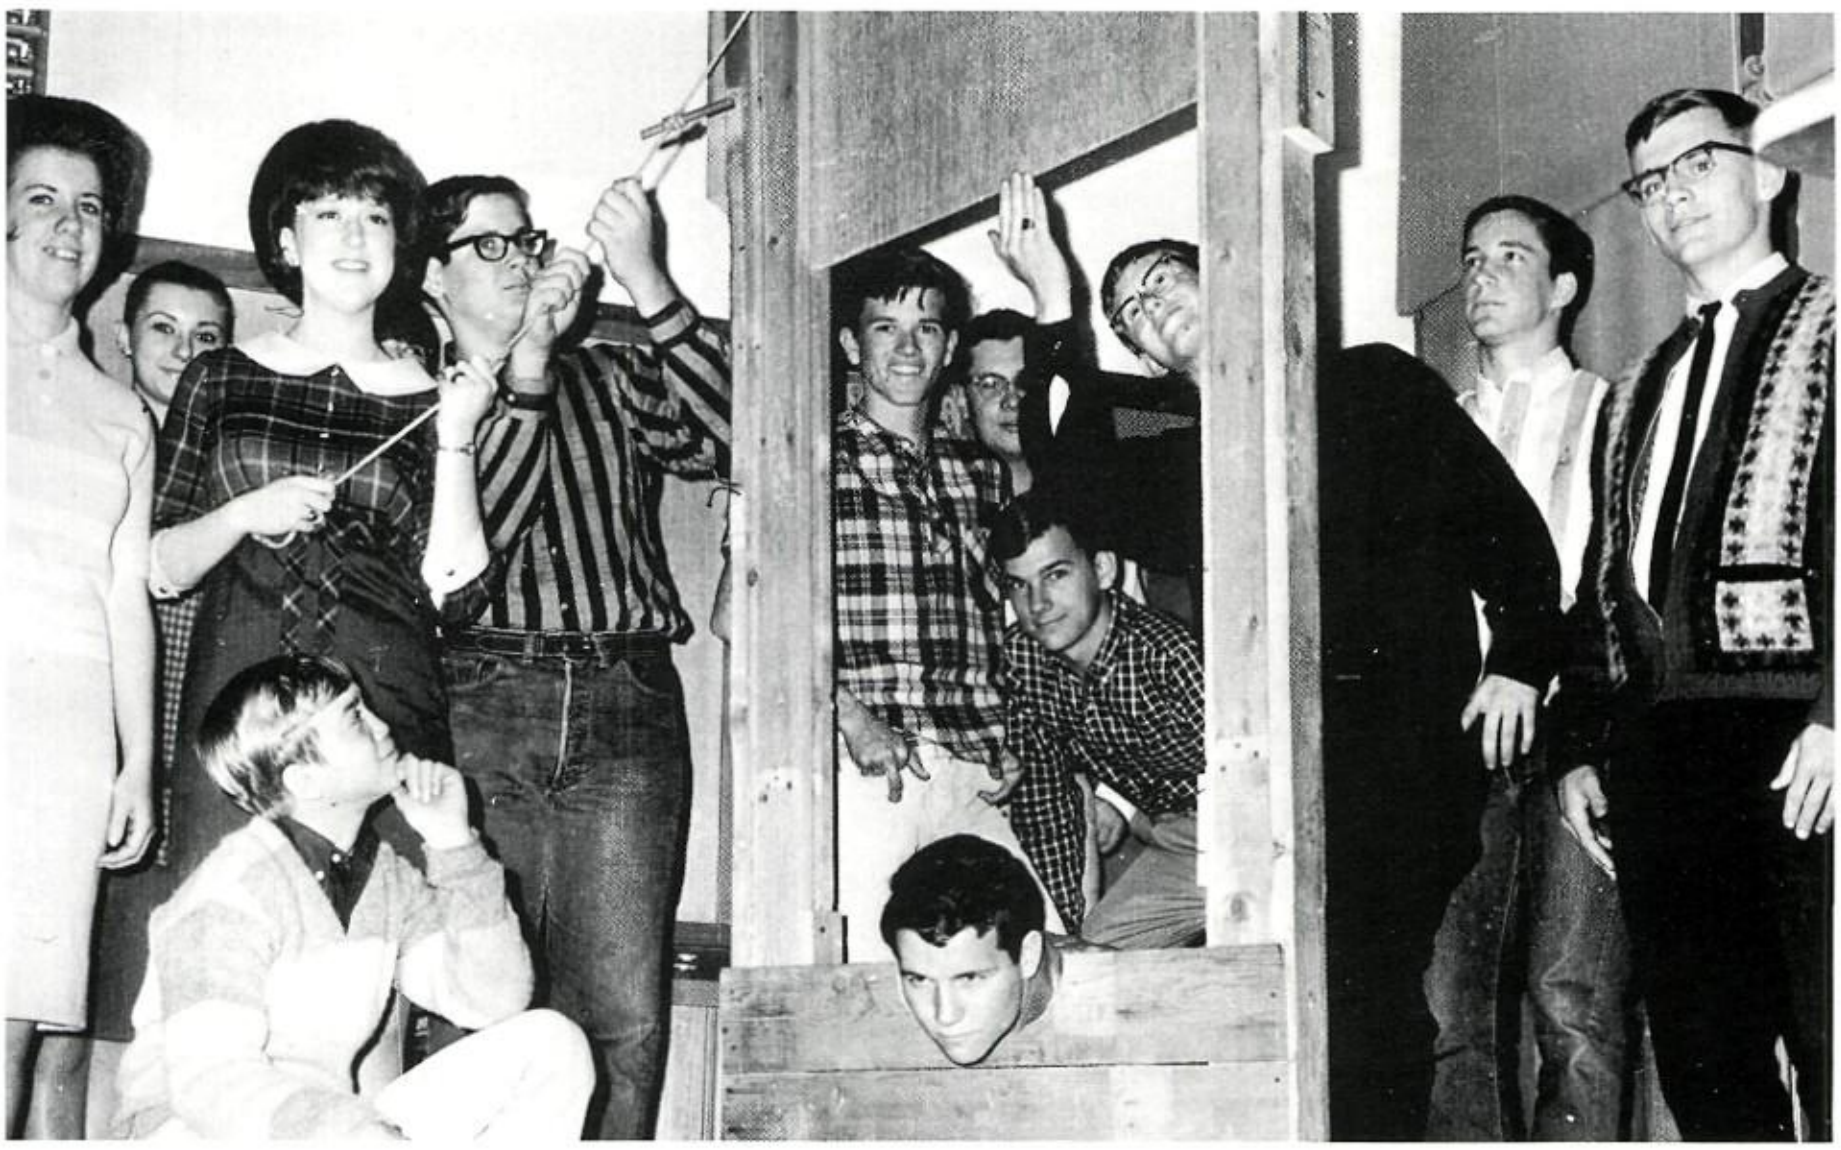
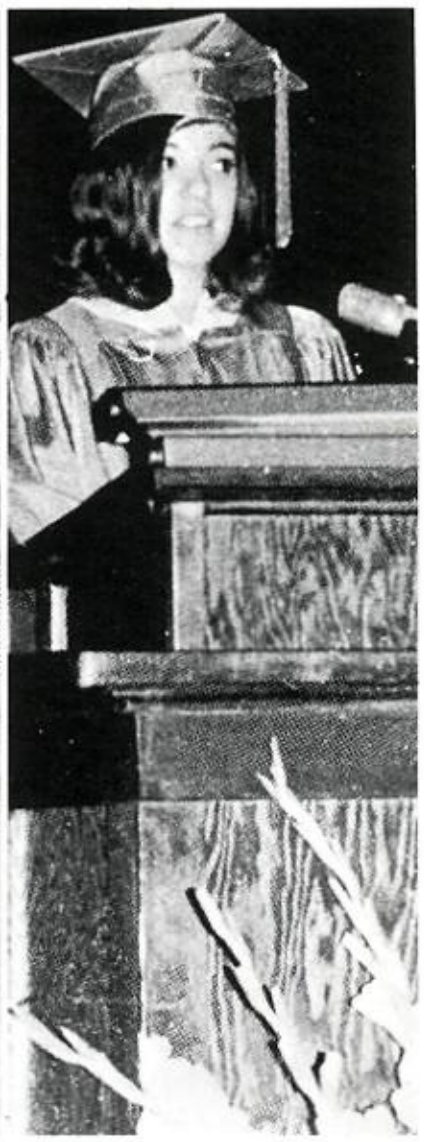
John Bailey Constructs Guillotine



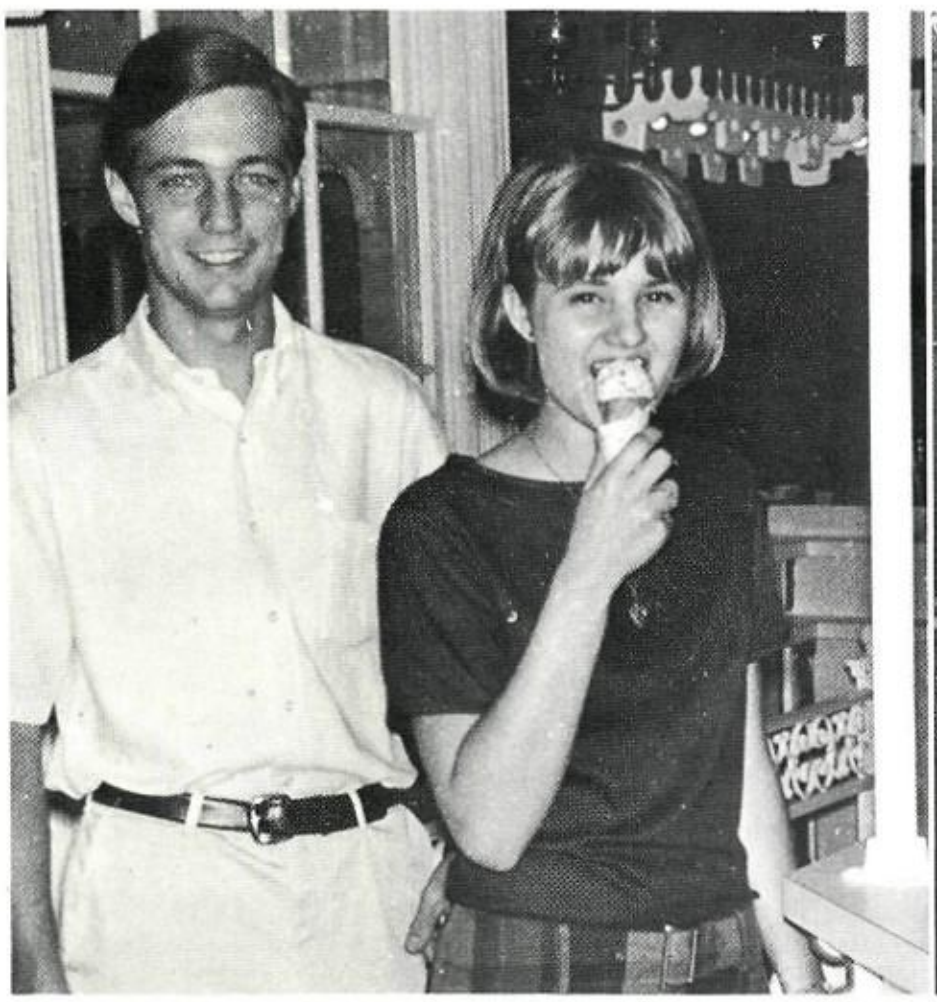
After finishing the study of the French Revolution, John Bailey, a student in Mrs. McGraw's world history class, constructed a replica of a guillotine. Gary Webb tests its authenticity.

Mike Jones, top boy, delivers his graduation speech.

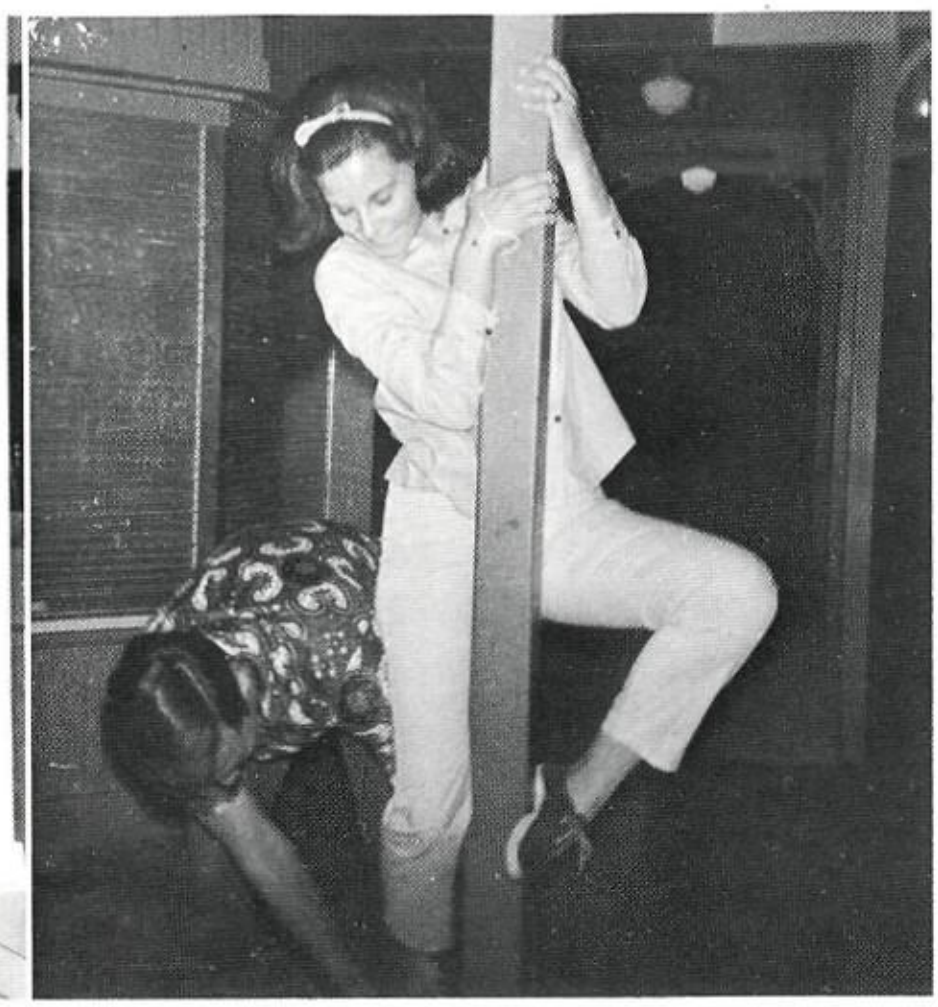
Laurie Parish receives her diploma from Mr. Johnson and Mr. Vaughan.



Sharon Berliner, top girl, addresses fellow students.



Steve Mixon and date enjoy ice cream at Six Flags, where the all-night party was held.



Cindy Purcell and Jerry Chandler have a good time at the seniors' party after graduation.

Graduation Concludes Year

Sandra Randall adjusts the cap of David Smith in preparation for the May 31 graduation.

Best wishes to one of my best and longest friends. You're one of the greatest guys
I know. Best of luck always.

Tim Rosella

Gary,
You're a great friend. Stay
the same always.
Love ya,
Sally Ann

Dear Gary,
I really consider it a privilege to have been your friend. May God bless you in everything.
Glenn McGowen

Good Luck
Richard Hilyard

Dear Gary,
Thanks a million for trying to cover my butt time and time again
me and your mistyn
friends. This Xmas will be a Good Luck
one for you.
Love ya,
Goldy
(Lou)

Dear Gary,
I'll never forget the time
(in elementary) when you got in trouble for playing with my hair.
Your probably don't remember.

Lots of Love
the best of Love to one of the Lovely
Elsie Bl
crew.
Dennis

Gary you are a great guy! I have really enjoyed this year! God luck always!
Love ya.
Cindy

Gary,
Knowing you these past two years has been an experience that I will never forget. I wish the very best of everything to the most wonderful man I know.
Love
Donna
